Men's Bible Group	Saturday, June 9, 7:30 am

HEARTS ON FIRE at Sacred Heart

Where Faith is Known,
Lived, & Shared

I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing. (Luke 12:49)

As you read the Archbishop’s letter, based on Synod 16, ask yourselves, “What is the Holy Spirit saying to me?”

LISTEN to the Archbishop: GUIDEPOST, Marker 1.1—ACTS 29: The book of Acts ends in chapter 28 with Paul under house arrest in Rome, still boldly preaching the Gospel. Luke ends [Acts] without finishing the story because the story of the Church’s mission continues in every age. We are living the 29th chapter of Acts! The ecology of the New Testament by which the Gospel was unleashed in the ancient world is the ecology of the Church today. It thus includes the same elements of repentance and faith;
signs and wonders.

UNLEASH THE GOSPEL, pg 19

PRAY: Tear or cut off this prayer and keep it where you’ll remember to pray it throughout the week

Come, Holy Spirit, to us at Sacred Heart Church, and lead us into “Acts 29.” Empower us to continue the Church’s mission in this time and place, just as You empowered its mission through Paul and the ancient Church to boldly proclaim the Gospel message. Give us the graces of wisdom and strength, courage and counsel to relate to our contemporary world in ways meaningful and relevant to them in unleashing the Gospel just as you did in New Testament times. Guide us in the use of the same necessary elements of “repentance and faith; signs and wonders”. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Amen

ACT: “What is the Holy Spirit saying to you” in this letter? Be honest—did you know there was not an “Acts 29” in the Bible? Maybe it’s time to do a Bible study of Acts, learning how the early Church “act”ed. What does “boldly preaching the Gospel” need to look like today? Pray for the Holy Spirit’s guidance. It’s not too late to prayerfully consider the opportunities presented at the “Ministry Fair” a few weeks ago. Just call Mike Merlo, say “Yes,” and do your part to unleash the Gospel at Sacred Heart.

YOUNG CATHOLIC PROFESSIONALS

Young Professionals: We are in need of volunteers to join our Detroit chapter leadership team!

We launched our chapter on August 1, 2017, and have since engaged hundreds of young adults from across Metro Detroit. We are excited to build our network even more as we enter Year 2 this summer.

Young Catholic Professionals (YCP) is one of the fastest growing Catholic organizations (20 chapters nationwide and still growing!). As a YCP leader, you will grow personally, professionally, and spiritually while making a lasting impact on your local community. You will develop your faith in a fast-paced professional world, receive mentorship from chapter board members, gain exclusive access to executive speakers and mentors, build incredible friendships with other leaders in Detroit and across the country, and grow invaluable management and leadership skills. If you're a young professional in your 20s or 30s, email info@ycpdetroit.org to learn about our open positions. For more information about our organization and upcoming events, visit www.ycpdetroit.org and www.youngcatholicprofessionals.org.

THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Whether statues or stained glass, the image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus can be found in churches all over the world. Jesus looks down, one hand extended out and another pointing to a heart wreathed in thorns and glowing with light. In the Sacred Heart, we see both the sorrow and the joy of the life of Christ, who became one of us out of love. "Jesus knew and loved us each and all during his life, his agony, and his Passion and gave himself up for each one of us? He has loved us all with a human heart" (CCC 478). In the Incarnation, God becomes man. Jesus experienced the fullness of humanity, including its sufferings. June 8th is the Feast of the Sacred Heart. We remember all that Jesus endured for us. We also remember why he endured it -- out of love.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

In our modern times, symbol can seem to have lost its value. The most recognizable "signs" are ones we see on the road or the branding in advertisements. The logos for major companies don't do much more than perk our interest or disdain. They surely don't deliver on their promises for our lives to be happier, healthier, and easier.

On this feast of Corpus Christi, we hear the account of the Last Supper. This was Passover, an ancient sign of the covenant of Moses. The Hebrew people celebrated God's providential care for His people. To the listening disciples, Jesus makes a very bold claim. "This is my blood of the covenant." At the time of the first Passover – the redemption of the Hebrew people from slavery to the Egyptians – the blood of the sacrificial lamb was spread on the lintels of the doorpost. Tomorrow, some of the disciples would witness the blood of the new covenant spread across the wood of the cross.

Christ's Body and Blood are more than a sign. They are a sacrament. In the sacrament, the sign makes real what it signifies. More than ritual, a sacrament enacts truth of the covenantal love of God and His promise of fidelity. It's a promise God keeps. The same bread and wine of that first Holy Thursday liturgy becomes – throughout the centuries and until the end of time – the very Body and Blood of Christ. On this feast, we celebrate the unfailing covenantal love of our God. As you partake in the Eucharist today, and next Sunday, and the Sunday after that, remember that you receive neither a meaningless sign nor an empty offer. You receive God Himself, as He fulfills His promise to remain with us always.
