HEARTS ON FIRE at Sacred Heart

Where Faith is Known,
Lived, & Shared

I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing. (Luke 12:49)

As you read the Archbishop's letter, based on Synod 16, ask yourselves, "What is the Holy Spirit saying to me?"

LISTEN to the Archbishop: GUIDEPOST, Marker 1.2—REPENT AND BELIEVE IN THE GOSPEL (cont.):

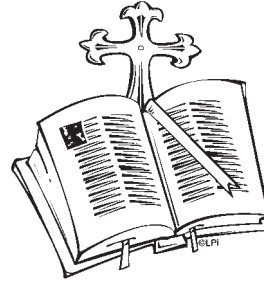

To be effective in today's context, our proclamation and teaching must contextualize the moral demands of the Gospel, showing why they are not arbitrary limitations on our freedom but the perfect plan of our loving God for human flourishing. We must provide our pastors, catechists and others with practical help and a systematized approach to presenting Christian morality. In particular, priests and deacons need training and resources for successfully preaching on the "hard topics." Our presentation of the Gospel's demands must be pastorally wise, meeting people where they are, and avoiding "truth bombs" that will only turn them away. It must honestly engage the culture, looking for "seeds of the Word"—partial truths and inklings of the Gospel even where mixed with error and confusion." UNLEASH THE GOSPEL, pg 19

PRAY: Tear or cut off this prayer and keep it where you'll remember to pray it throughout the week

Come, Holy Spirit, to us at Sacred Heart Church, as we pray especially this week for Fr. Cavellier and Deacon Jack to receive Your gifts to enable them, as pastor and Deacon, to fruitfully present the Gospel's demands to us in the parish. Guide the archdiocese in developing "practical help and a systematized approach" for them to use that is "pastorally wise," meeting people where they are. Then open our hearts and minds at Sacred Heart to hear and understand their preaching, even on "hard topics," not as limitations on our freedom, but the "perfect plan of our loving God for our flourishing." Help us all to look for "seeds of the Word" in all exchanges on moral topics with family and friends. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Amen

ACT: "What is the Holy Spirit saying to you" in this letter? Pray this week for all pastors and deacons, and especially for Fr. Cavellier and Deacon Jack Parent, to grow in pastoral wisdom.

LIVE THE LITURGY— INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus compares the Kingdom of God to a mustard seed, the tiniest of seeds.

When planted, the tiny mustard seed grows into a tremendous tree with large branches. So, too, in each of our lives, small things can have profound effects. God can use one of our more insignificant gestures to radically change another person's life. It may be the kindness of a smile, our willingness to accommodate someone, listening to someone's story, helping someone who is hurting, standing up for someone who is right, or complimenting someone on something they did. We all have God-given gifts and talents. Our task is to use them creatively, consistently, lovingly, and generously. We trust that God will take care of the rest.

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"This is how it is with the kingdom of God." What is a kingdom? Is it the brick and mortar that build up the castle? Is it the expanse of land a king can reasonably defend? Our notions of kingdoms may be romanticized in the modern era, but for the Israelites, a kingdom held deep historical meaning. Thousands of years before the birth of Christ, the Israelites had asked God for a king. After the reigns of David and Solomon, the united kingdom dissolved into factions, and the land was conquered by the Assyrians, Babylonians, and, finally, Romans. For the Israelites, a kingdom was something to build, both structurally and civilly. While this had ended in ruin for their ancestors, many of Jesus' contemporaries longed for the restoration of an earthly kingdom.

Jesus' words in today's Gospel are a radical departure from this perspective. He compares the Kingdom of God to a field, but it appears that the farmer has little to do with its progress. "The seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how. Of its own accord, the land yields fruit." Jesus introduces his followers to a new sort of kingdom, a kingdom where God provides the growth.

There is work to be done, of course. "When the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come." But for the Kingdom of God to flourish, there are certain things that are outside of our control. We sow seeds of kindness, justice, and integrity? and then we must be patient. As shoots of faith appear, we nurture the growth with encouragement. As Christians, our task is not to build the Kingdom of God under our power alone, but to trust in the life-giving movement of God.
