HEARTS ON FIRE at Sacred Heart

Where Faith is Known,
Lived, & Shared

I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing. (Luke 12:49)

As you read the Archbishop's letter, based on Synod 16, ask yourselves, "What is the Holy Spirit saying to me?"

LISTEN to the Archbishop: GUIDEPOST 6 - PERSON-TO-PERSON ENGAGEMENT: Marker 6.4:

Media: If evangelization is to be "new in method," to the fullest degree possible we must use new media in unleashing the Gospel. Just as St. Paul used the highly developed Roman road system and St. Maximilian Kolbe used the latest printing technologies to spread the Gospel in their times, so we recognize the advances in social media and information technology as God-given opportunities for spreading the Gospel in our time. Strong support and gratitude are owed to those members of our local Church who are using the media to spread the Good News. I encourage the media experts among us to share their expertise and help train others in using the media for evangelization.

UNLEASH THE GOSPEL, pg 38

PRAY: Tear or cut off this prayer and keep it where you'll remember to pray it throughout the week

Come, Holy Spirit, to Sacred Heart Church. Show us how to use the "new media in unleashing the Gospel." Open our hearts and minds to recognize the advances in technology as "God-given opportunities" for unleashing the Gospel in our time. We give God thanks and praise for providing us with members who "are using the media to spread the Good News." And we pray for more to come forward with new ideas and techniques to expand our use of it, and to train others in using it for evangelization. Come Holy Spirit, set our hearts on fire to share the Good News of Jesus with all those who stumble in darkness, who hunger for hope, and who thirst for eternal life. Amen.

ACT: What is this letter saying to you? Consider how you might contribute to the use of social media and information technology to bring the Gospel to the world. Do you use it in your work in a way that could be applied here at Sacred Heart? Could you train others? Do you know someone in the parish you could invite to serve in this way? Take this need to prayer this week. Listen for an answer.

All skill levels are welcome!

We are asking parishes to help us spread the word on this amazing opportunity. It would be a great blessing if you could share this opportunity with the faithful in your community by including this information in your weekly bulletin, parish email, newsletter, or other communication source.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

August 11, 2019

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Tickets booked, packing list double-checked, itinerary set - how do you know you're prepared for a trip? Being ready requires plenty of practical preparation. Do we give the same care to our spiritual preparedness? "Your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom," Jesus tells us. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus reminds us to have the right attitude for the gifts and callings he wants to give us!

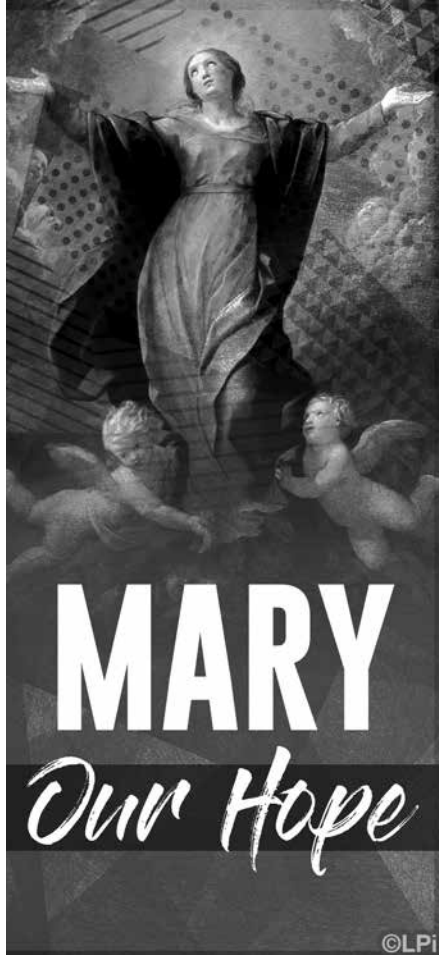

Clear out your clutter! "Where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." Jesus reminds the disciples that earthly standards of security and success will wear out in time. If our lives are structured around values that don't align with the kingdom of God, we'll miss opportunities to receive God. If we're so concerned with our child's success in sports that we miss Sunday Mass for their tournaments, we're missing out receiving the sacraments and building a consistent community of faith. If our quest for the promotion takes us away from family commitments, we won't be able to fully receive the love intended in our closest relationships.

Set faith-based priorities. "Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival." Our conflicting commitments can cause any routine to slip from time to time. All the more reason to make sure faith is a priority. Pray as a family before meals. Bring your children regularly to the sacrament of confession. Make room in the schedule for faith enrichment activities offered by your parish. Volunteer once a month. "At an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come." When will the call come to care for an ailing parent? To take on a new leadership position? God speaks to us through the circumstances of our lives. He calls each of us to greater love, sometimes in very concrete ways. This week, take some time to consider: Will you be ready? ©LPI

Feast of the Assumption : Holy Day of Obligation – August 15th

THE ASSUMPTION: A SIGN OF HOPE

Is the resurrection a concept or reality? For many of us, the resurrection of the dead may be a stray idea recite in the Nicene Creed. Heaven we discuss. But resurrection? The feast of the Assumption is a reminder to us that heaven gets even better! We pray that the souls of the faithful departed would soon be united to God in heaven. The truth is, the separation between our souls and our bodies was not God's original plan for things. It's one of the results of the Fall, of original sin. At the end of time and Jesus' second coming, our bodies and souls will be reunited. Lest we forget, Mary's Assumption is the reminder. Today, we celebrate that Mary is enjoying what we, too, hope to participate in – complete joy in heaven with our God, experienced body and soul. Today and every day, let's pray for those who have died and that we may meet them again in the heavenly kingdom. ©LPI

As joyful disciples on mission, it can sometimes seem like we're alone in our efforts to bring the truth and beauty of the gospel to our communities. We may look to our right and our left and wonder who will come along with us.

Jesus says that "the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." Jesus knew that being a missionary disciple is no small task. Not many people are willing to start the journey or keep walking on it.

But Jesus also reassures us: we can "ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for the harvest." God wants to provide in abundance for the abundant harvest. He is the one sustaining our mission — not just with our own energy, but with the support of others who join in.

Where do you find community and support in your mission?

Share your responses online and it might be featured on social media or in our magazine!
