Fourth Sunday of Advent

4th SUNDAY OF ADVENT

And the angel said to her in reply, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God." - Lk 1:35

Family of Parishes Prayer

Father in Heaven, renew your wonders in our time,
as though by a New Pentecost.

Holy Spirit, increase your gifts in us to move boldly into Families of Parishes with confidence. Deepen our desire for every person to encounter Jesus anew, grow daily as his disciples and give witness to his love and mercy.

This is our mission! And, we embrace it anew.

Grant that your Holy Church in Detroit, praying perseveringly and insistently with one mind, together with Mary, the mother of Jesus, and guided by St. Joseph, St. Anne and Bl. Solanus Casey, may increase the reign of the Divine Savior, the reign of truth and justice, the reign of love and peace.

We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen

USHERS NEEDED

Because of the COVID Virus we will continue to practice social distancing at Mass. In order to maximize seating and reduce confusion we need your assistance as an USHER at our Christmas Masses at 4:00pm and 6:00pm on Christmas Eve and 10:00am on Christmas Day, 4:00pm on Saturday Dec 26th and 10:00am on Sunday Dec 27th.

If you would be able to assist as an Usher at any of these Masses, please call Mr. Michael Merlo at 248-852-4170 ext 12 and let him know which Mass you will be able to Usher. We will have a 15 minute training session on Wednesday Dec 23rd so that everyone will know what they are doing.

Thank you for assisting and making Sacred Heart such a welcoming Parish.

Reflect

First Reading

Today's reading from Second Samuel narrates the context in which God establishes his covenantal promise to King David around the year 1000 B.C. In the birth of Jesus, God fulfills his covenant with David. What does this teach us about the idea of "salvation history?"

Second Reading

Paul concludes his letter to the Romans with a hymn of praise to God for the long-awaited revelation that all are saved and justified through faith in Christ. In what ways are you praising God during this season of Advent?

Gospel

Today's Gospel reading records the angel Gabriel's announcement to Mary of the upcoming birth of Christ.

Mary's acceptance of God's will for her life ("May it be done to me according to your word.") models for all of us unconditional faith. How can we encourage others to embrace such faith? ©LPI

HEARTS ON FIRE at Sacred Heart

Where Faith is Known,
Lived, & Shared

I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing. (Luke 12:49)

LISTEN to the Archbishop: CONCLUSION: I am firmly convinced that the graces bestowed upon the Church in Detroit in Synod 16 are a great spiritual treasure, riches which the Holy Spirit has poured out upon us for the monumental task that lies ahead. With the help of God I will be a true and faithful steward of these gifts that are the common property of us all for the work that has been entrusted to us all. I am establishing the New Evangelization Council as a permanent body to assist me in assessing the response of the Church in the Archdiocese to Synod 16 and to advise on ways to make continued progress in unleashing the Gospel. In this way I will have the support I need in the discharge of my stewardship. And I look to give annually at Pentecost an accounting of my stewardship of the graces of Synod 16.

UNLEASH THE GOSPEL, pg 62

PRAY: Tear or cut off this prayer and keep it where you'll remember to pray it throughout the week

Come, Holy Spirit, to Sacred Heart. Open our hearts and minds to receive the graces that are the "spiritual treasure" from Synod 16. Lead us to cooperate with those graces so that the monumental task that lies ahead, making our entire diocese full of joyful missionary disciples, will be accomplished. Give Archbishop Vigneron and the New Evangelization Council he has appointed the strength, wisdom, and courage to make continued progress in leading us all to unleash the Gospel in Detroit and specifically in Sacred Heart parish and in our new Family of parishes to which we now belong. Amen!

ACT: What is this letter saying to you? Have you ever thought of Synod 16, now 4 years ago, as having provided "spiritual treasure"? Those treasured graces have led us now into forming a new structure—Families of Parishes (ours recently announced to be composed of Sacred Heart, St. Damien of Molokai, St. Hugo of the Hills, and St. Thomas More.). Pray right now and for this week that the Holy Spirit will show you how to cooperate with those graces and use your gifts to make our Family fulfill its mission to Unleash the Gospel.

Saint OF THE WEEK

DECEMBER 15 | SAINT JOHN OF KANTY

On December 23, it is the feast day of St. John of Kanty. John Cantius was born in the year 1397 in the Polish town of Kanty (whence his surname). He became a professor of theology, then parish priest; soon, however, he returned to the professor's chair at the University of Cracow. On foot he visited the holy places of Rome and Palestine. One day, after robbers had deprived him of all his effects, they asked him whether he had anything more. The saint said no, but hardly had they gone when he remembered having sewn some gold pieces inside his clothing; immediately he followed and overtook them. The robbers, astonished at the man's sense of truthfulness, refused to accept the money and returned to him the stolen luggage. To guard himself and his household from evil gossip he wrote upon the wall of his room (after the example of St. Augustine): Conturbare cave, non est placare suave, diffamare cave, nam revocare grave, or "Guard against causing trouble and slandering others, for it is difficult to right the evil done." His love of neighbor was most edifying. Often, he gave away his own clothing and shoes; then, not to appear barefoot, he lowered his cassock to have it drag along the ground. Sensing that his death was near at hand, he distributed whatever he still had to the poor and died peacefully in the Lord at an advanced age. He is honored as one of the principal patrons of Poland and Lithuania.

We invite YOU to join with the Intercessory Prayer Team at Sacred Heart. Those who enter into intercessory prayer ministry make a decision to pray specifically on behalf of our parish, our community and the world. The fruitfulness of evangelization depends upon the graces called down through intercession. Join us as we pray this week:

Lord, we pray In the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit:

~ For Archbishop Vigneron and AoD leadership to be docile to the Holy Spirit as they lead us into implementing the Families of Parishes initiative.

~ For all victims of the pandemic and their families, especially those who must be separated from each other at a time of trial.

~ For the Holy Spirit to open our hearts and minds as we await the celebration of the birth of our Lord so that Christ may be born in us.

~ For our parish families living on the margins because of financial or other hardships, that their needs may be met so they know they are the saints living among us.

~ For the Holy Spirit to open the hearts of all at Sacred Heart and our now Sister parishes—St. Damien of Molokai, St. Hugo, and St. Thomas More—to the inspiration of the Holy Spirit as we form a Family of Parishes.

We ask all this in the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit. Amen.

CELEBRATING THE 12 DAYS OF CHRISTMAS AT HOME

To celebrate these 12 days in your household, gather each day, perhaps around a meal, light a candle, read the suggested biblical passage, then share what you can do to make Jesus' presence more real in our world. As Vatican Council II reminded us, "Christ is the Light of nations. Because this is so, by proclaiming the Gospel to every creature, we bring the light of Christ to all persons."

1st Day of Christmas (Luke 2:1-18)

Both Mary and the shepherds see in this child the revelations of God's love for all, especially the poor.

How might each of us recognize and respond to the needs of the poor?

2nd Day of Christmas (Acts 6:8-19, 7:54-59)

St. Stephen models our call to witness to Jesus' message of love despite the cost to us. How might each of us reach out to love and help the poorest among us?

3rd Day of Christmas (Lk 2:22-40)

Simeon's message to Jesus' parents reminds us that sorrow is part of every life.

How might each of us respond to the sorrow that so many are experiencing in their lives and relationships?

4th Day of Christmas (Mt 2:13-18)

Jesus' birth threatened King Herod, who murdered many innocent children to remain king.

Where are innocent persons being persecuted today and how might we try to help them?

5th Day of Christmas (1 Jn 1:1-4)

God has been revealed and become visible in Jesus.

How might each of us act today to make God visible in ourselves and to recognize God's presence in those around us?

6th Day of Christmas (Mt 2:13-15, 19-23)

When the holy family becomes refugees fleeing Herod's persecution, Joseph must trust God's plan to protect Jesus and Mary.

How might we respond to help refugees and immigrants find a better life?

7th Day of Christmas (Jn 1:1-18)

Jesus, God's Word made flesh, invites us to embody in ourselves the loving, forgiving, nurturing ways of God.

How might each of us better model these godly ways in our relationships?

8th Day of Christmas (Jn 1:19-28)

John the Baptist prepares the way for others to discover and draw near to Jesus.

How might we "make straight the Lord's way" in our daily activities?

9th Day of Christmas (Jn 1:29-34)

John the Baptist knows that God's Holy Spirit is at work in Jesus.

How might each of us show our trust that through the Holy Spirit God is also working in us?

10th Day of Christmas (Jn 1:35-42)

Jesus asks his would-be disciples "What are you looking for?"

How might each of us answer this same question to better understand who Jesus is and who we are as his disciples?

11th Day of Christmas (Jn 1:43-51)

Inspired by his experience of Jesus, Phillip invites Nathanael to come and meet Jesus too.

How might we reach out to share what we know and love about Jesus with someone else?

12th Day of Christmas (Mt 2:1-12)

The Gentile magi follow the star as the sign of God's inclusive love for all peoples.

How might we make real God's inclusive love in our society, especially the most vulnerable and excluded?

SCAMS ARE HAPPENING AT AN ALARMING RATE

BE CAREFUL!

BE ALERT!

Please take the following advice on Scams:

1. If you get an email or text from Father Cavellier or anyone from our staff asking you to buy gift cards and send them the PIN it is a scam! Do not open...do not do anything with the message!
2. Never do business with someone who shows up at your door before you research their qualifications and their previous performance.
3. Avoid giving out personal information over the phone or email (phone number, birth date, social security number, bank numbers, etc.)
3. Do not wire money to someone you do not know personally before verifying where the money is going and EVERYTHING about the entire message.
4. Resist high pressure tactics (like this offer is only available over this phone call or needs to be finalized now). Always take time to ask questions and do your research before making any decisions

3 EASY STEPS

TO KEEPING YOURSELF & OTHERS HEALTHY!

We are cautioned to be especially careful during the Coronavirus outbreak. Here are some simple ways to keep sickness away.

WASH YOUR HANDS

Wash your hands for at least 20 seconds using soap and water. If you can't wash your hands, use hand sanitizer frequently.

DON'T TOUCH YOUR FACE

Especially around the eyes, nose and mouth. If you must sneeze, use a tissue or your arm.

KEEP YOUR DISTANCE

Practice social distancing during this epidemic and stay away from large groups. Instead, call, email or check up on family and friends using social media.
