3rd Sunday of Easter

Adopt A Garden

Winter is gone! Spring is finally here! Welcome sunshine, daffodils, tulip, crocuses, budding trees and songbirds.

It's that time of the year to sharpen and clean our garden tools. The fresh spring air feels so good to breathe in while working in our yards. We can say a few prayers while we have some quiet time.

Would you and your family be willing to adopt a garden space on our Sacred Heart Parish's grounds this year? Please give it some thought. If you would like to keep the same garden space that you have had last year, please call Pat at 248-566-3059, and it will be yours.

Thank you for your consideration.

To maintain social distancing measures please call Pat Guibord 248-566-3059 to renew your space or for help finding a place to work on the grounds.

Family of Parishes Prayer

Father in Heaven, renew your wonders in our time, as though by a New Pentecost.

Holy Spirit, increase your gifts in us to move boldly into Families of Parishes with confidence. Deepen our desire for every person to encounter Jesus anew, grow daily as his disciples and give witness to his love and mercy.

This is our mission! And, we embrace it anew.

Grant that your Holy Church in Detroit, praying perseveringly and insistently with one mind, together with Mary, the mother of Jesus, and guided by St. Joseph, St. Anne and Bl. Solanus Casey, may increase the reign of the Divine Savior, the reign of truth and justice, the reign of love and peace.

We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen

Reflect AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

FIRST READING:

In publicly bearing witness to Jesus' resurrection, Peter urged the people to repent of their sin of ignorance and their denial of Jesus. How does Jesus' resurrection from the dead inspire you to repentance?

SECOND READING:

John teaches his community that the key to avoiding sin is to follow Jesus' commandments. What do you find challenging in this seemingly simple and clear instruction?

GOSPEL:

Luke tells us that the resurrected Jesus opened the minds of the disciples "to understand the Scriptures" and see how his suffering, death, and resurrection was connected to repentance and forgiveness of sins. What tools do you use to better understand our faith? ©LPi

HEARTS ON FIRE

at Sacred Heart
Where Faith is Known,
Lived, & Shared

I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing. (Luke 12:49)

On November 22, 2020, Archbishop Vigneron wrote a Pastoral Note on Families of Parishes: Led by the Spirit on Mission. In the following weeks we will view and pray with excerpts from that Note.

LISTEN to the Archbishop: While Families of Parishes are certainly new to our archdiocese, the required commitment to collaboration and cooperation is not. In the past four decades, we have seen parishes coordinating Advent Reconciliation Services, Lenten Missions and Mass schedules. Some of our parishes have shared staff positions, faith formation programs or pastors. A few have shared buildings and worship sites. In the months and years ahead, new and innovative ways to work together will strengthen the bonds that already exist and will build new bonds everywhere else. For many of our parishes this will be an entirely new process which will require everyone to let go of a status quo mentality and to choose trust over fear. For all of us, this new reality will require a renewal of our confidence in Jesus' power and his presence among us.

[Our Family is: St. Hugo, St. Thomas More, St. Damien of Molokai, and Sacred Heart.]

NOTE ON FAMILIES OF PARISHES: LED BY THE SPIRIT ON MISSION, PG 7-8

PRAY: Tear or cut off this prayer and keep it where you'll remember to pray it throughout the week

Come, Holy Spirit, to Sacred Heart Church and to our Sister Parishes in our Family (see above): Build up in our minds and hearts the "required commitment to collaboration and cooperation" for this new adventure. Strengthen those bonds which we already have within our Family, and build new ones between us. Give us the desire, the will, and the strength "to choose trust over fear." Jesus, we Trust in You! Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in us the fire of your love as we renew our confidence in Jesus' power and presence with us in this new process. Amen!

ACT: What is this Note saying to me? What "status quo mentality" ideas might you have to let go of? What do you "fear" in the changes being made? Pray the Divine Mercy Prayer—"Jesus, I Trust In YOU"—whenever you feel afraid of those changes.

Saint OF THE WEEK

APRIL 20 | SAINT AGNES OF MONTEPULCIANO

On April 20, it is the feast day of St. Agnes of Montepulciano. A Dominican nun, Agnes (1268 – 1317) was renowned for her diligence in prayer and her extraordinary charity. Although born of a wealthy family in Gracchiano, Italy, she believed that charity is the only way to acquire the virtue of humility: there is no humility without charity; the one nourishes the other. She first joined the Sisters of the Sack (so-called because of their rough clothes) in Montepulciano. But when a new foundation was established in Proceno, Agnes was sent there as housekeeper; later she served as bursar and superior. Meanwhile, her austerities and her visions of Christ, Mary, and the angels had become so well known that the citizens of Montepulciano invited her to return. She did so and founded a convent in premises formerly used as brothels. Because she sought perfection according to the way of St. Dominic, she placed the convent under the direction of the Dominicans, and it grew and prospered.

This "little lamb" was born not far from Montepulciano in 1268. She expressed a desire to give her life to God and practiced pious exercises from an early age. Now and then, her parents gave in to her requests to visit the various convents in town. On one such occasion, Agnes and her mother were passing a house of ill repute, when a flock of crows suddenly descended upon her, pecking, and scratching the little girl. Her mother remarked that the crows represented demonic forces threatened by her purity. Indeed, years later, Agnes would be asked to find a convent on that very spot.

In her teens, Agnes joined the Franciscans in Montepulciano and rose to become its prioress. Small white flakes in the form of crosses fell gently from the heavens in celebration. It is said that the sisters have preserved some of these until today. In 1306, God inspired Agnes to find a Dominican convent with three stones given her by the Blessed Mother in honor of the Trinity. The Blessed Mother had visited Agnes many times. On one of these occasions, she allowed Agnes to hold the Christ Child, but Agnes showed great reluctance in giving him back.

Toward the end of her life, Agnes sought healing from some famous springs. Although she did not receive healing herself, her prayers effected the resurrection of a child who had drowned in the springs. In 1317, Agnes died in Montepulciano and received her long-awaited reward. She is the patron saint of the City of Siena and Italy.

HAPPY

Earth Day

THURSDAY, APRIL 22

The fruitfulness of evangelization depends upon the graces called down through intercession.

"I did not know someone had taken me to God that very hour...and He, in infinite compassion, had stooped down and taken [the load] from me...Someone had prayed, and Faith, a searching hand, took hold of God and brought Him down that day!" (St. Maximilian Kolbe).

Oh let us pray!

- ~ For all those who entered the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil, that the Lord would guide and protect them as they grow into mature disciples who know, serve, and share Jesus with others.
- ~ For Archbishop Vigneron, the Auxiliary Bishops, and all priests, especially those in our Family of Parishes, that the Easter Sacraments will fill them with abundant joy and give them renewed zeal as they shepherd the faithful.
- ~ For all priests who are transitioning to new assignments, especially those in our Family—Fr. Cavellier, Fr. Craig Marion, Fr. Andrew Mabee, and Fr. Mark Brauer—that they see this as an opportunity for a deeper surrender to the Holy Spirit and a chance to trust the amazing plans He has for them.
- ~ For conversion and transformation of our national and world leaders to serve God according to His Way, Life, Truth, and Word. We ask all this in the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit (sign of the Cross). Amen.

We ask all this in the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit (Sign of the Cross). Amen.

THANK YOU SO MUCH to all who helped with our St. Vincent de Paul Easter Baskets. Because of your generous food and monetary donations, we were able to provide Easter food baskets for 62 families in our area. Each family received two boxes which included enough food for two weeks, paper goods, Easter candy, pop or juice, and a Meijer giftcard. Also, thanks to Panera Bread, each family got bagels, bread, and a cookie or pastry. Finally, thank you to our Eighth Graders, their parents, and their teachers for helping distribute the baskets to the families. We are grateful for all the donations and help we had; we could not have made Easter a joyful day for our neighbors in need without you!!
