24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

PLEASE WELCOME
Fr. John Vandenakker
TO SACRED HEART CHURCH

Fr. John Vandenakker was born and raised in Ottawa, Ontario, Canada. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1985. Since then he has belonged to a new community of priests known as the Companions of the Cross. He was the Moderator of Companions of the Cross from 1997 to 2000. He currently is an Assistant Professor of Systematic Theology & Director of Graduate Pastoral Formation at Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit. Fr. John has also taught at Dominican College in Ottawa, St. Paul University in Ottawa and St. Augustine Seminary in Toronto. He has been Pastor at Queen of Peace parish in Houston, Texas and St. Maurice Parish in Ottawa. Fr. John lives in residence with his fellow Companions of the Cross priests and seminarians at St. Scholastica parish, Detroit (in the former Benedictine Monastery). On Saturdays and Sundays he will celebrate Masses at Sacred Heart.

HEARTS ON FIRE

at Sacred Heart
Where Faith is Known, Lived, & Shared

"Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire!" St. Catherine of Siena

LISTEN to Fruitful Discipleship—The Charism of SERVICE empowers a Christian to be a channel of God's purposes by recognizing the logistical gaps or unmet needs that prevent good things from happening, and by personally doing whatever it takes to bridge the gap or meet the need. People with this gift have a kind of radar for unmet needs around them . . . Are personally motivated to respond in a hands-on way to meet those needs . . . Are motivated to fill vacuums that prevent good things from happening. . . typically self-starting and multi-talented.

(Fruitful Discipleship, by Sherry Weddell, pg 149-152)

PRAY: Tear or cut off this prayer and keep it where you'll remember to pray it throughout the week

Come, Holy Spirit, Lord of the Gifts, to Sacred Heart Church and to our Sister Parishes; Open our minds and hearts to hear your voice and feel your direction. Reveal to each of us the special and particular gifts (Charisms) You have given to us to use for others. Provide opportunities to test and discern whether they might have the Charism of Service. Reveal to them how You want them to use the Charisms you've given, and give them the desire and will to do it. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in each of us the fire of Your love as we discern and use the Charisms you have given. Amen!

ASK & ACT: What is this note saying to me? Am I one that would rather do something practical for God and help others, than sit around talking? Do I quickly notice unmet needs in my parish, workplace or family, and enjoy doing the hands-on work of meeting those needs myself? Have people commented that I often recognize logistical gaps or "holes" that other miss? Do I really enjoy practical problem-solving to serve God and his Kingdom? Do others tell me that my hands-on approach makes a big difference? I will pray over these questions, asking God to lead me into discernment of whether (or not) He has given me the Charism of Service, and ask for the desire and will to know how I might use any of my charisms in our parish or my community. Remember—"No Bystanders."

Saint OF THE WEEK
SEPTEMBER 14 | SAINT NOTBURGA

On September 14, it is the feast day of St. Notburga. Notburga was born at Rattenberg-on-the-Inn, a town in the Austrian Tyrol not far to the east of Innsbruck. At the age of 18, this devout young woman of peasant stock entered the employment of Count Henry of Rattenberg as a member of his kitchen staff.

Notburga was always very solicitous of the poor. She cut down on her own food, especially on Friday, to be able to give something to those who knocked on the kitchen door. Discovering that the staff were used to discarding the abundant food left over from the Count's table, she also began to hand this out, too. Count Henry's mother was apparently unopposed to the charitable practice. But after the mother's death Henry's wife, Countess Ottilia, ordered that all leftovers be fed to the pigs. Dismayed, Notburga obeyed for a time, but then renewed her former policy. Unfortunately, the bossy Ottilia caught her red-handed one day and saw to it that she was fired.

The young woman then found employment with a farmer at nearby Eben. Her new job involved fieldwork. A charming legend connecting her with harvesting has become a popular tale among the children of Tyrol. Notburga made a practice of going to church for Sunday's first vespers, and her employer had agreed not to interfere. One Saturday, however, when she was engaged in reaping, the vesper bell rang, indicating that Sunday had officially begun. The saint was getting ready to leave for church when the farmer ordered her to continue cutting the grain. She refused. With first vespers it was already Sunday, she said, and Christians do not work on Sunday. "But the weather might change, and the crop be lost," he insisted. "All right," said the servant, "Let this sickle decide between us." Thereupon she threw the shiny crescent-shaped tool up into the air, and there it hung like a new moon! The farmer yielded, and she went off to church.

Meanwhile, Count Henry was in a dejected state of mind. Bossy Ottilia had died, and he had been suffering all sorts of misfortunes, which he was inclined to blame on his dismissal of Notburga. When he remarried, therefore, he asked her to return to his castle as housekeeper. She did so and lived the rest of her life happily and holily in his employ. When Notburga was dying, it is said, she urged him to continue taking care of the poor. Furthermore, she instructed him to place her corpse on a wagon drawn by two oxen, and to bury her wherever the oxen might stop in their tracks. Henry complied. The oxen stopped right in front of the chapel of St. Rupert at Eben, so there she was laid to rest. She is the patron saint of servants and peasants.

The fruitfulness of evangelization depends upon the graces called down through intercession.

~ For our new Parish Administrator, Fr. John Vandenakker, that he will be docile to the Holy Spirit as he leads Sacred Heart forward in our Family of Parishes.

~ For our Family's Pastors, and Fr. Mark, our Moderator, may the Holy Spirit guide them and give them the wisdom and strength to cooperate in working through any challenges in our Family.

~ In thanksgiving for Grandparents and the love they share—may they be the Light of Christ in their families, leading their children and grandchildren to Jesus and His Church.

~ In memory and thanksgiving for all those who lost their lives in the terrorist attack in New York 20 years ago, especially those who died while saving others, just as Christ did for us.

We ask all this in the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit (Sign of the Cross). Amen.

CAN YOU HELP?

We are looking for volunteers to distribute Communion to residents at American House on Tuesdays and Pomeroy Living on Saturdays. The only requirements for this ministry are: having both Covid vaccine shots, being confirmed in the Catholic faith, and having a desire to share our Lord Jesus through the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.

This simple form of service to those in need will enhance your faith life and provide you many more blessings. If you would like more information or would like to be trained in the mission of charity, please call Michael Merlo at 248-852-4170 ext 12.

WE NEED YOU! To Unleash the Gospel to our Youth!

This past year, our Religious Education program successfully shared the Good News of the Gospel to the children of Sacred Heart families. This year we need a few more teachers. We need people to share their faith as catechist for our youth. Don't worry about if you can do this... the Holy Spirit will provide you with the grace to spread his Good News. Remember Jesus and the Holy Spirit, used fisherman to spread his Gospel to the whole world. He certainly can use you and me to do the same.

Religious Education is on Monday evenings from 6:00 to 7:30pm, from the end of September through April. We provide teachers with books, and online training, if desired, from Franciscan University. The Archdiocese has also provided us with a new curriculum that focuses on Unleashing the Gospel, so children can learn about Jesus and hopefully develop a relationship with our Lord and Savior. The Archdiocese curriculum is adaptable and has several great ideas of bringing the Scriptures to life for the children. We have a lot of tools and ideas, we just need a few people to share their faith. We teach in pairs (like Jesus sent the Apostles in pairs), which allows one teacher to teach and the other to assist.

If you have any question, or would like to assist us in this ministry of evangelization, please contact Michael Merlo at 248-852-4170 x12.

TAKE UP YOUR CROSS

Take up your cross, the Savior said,
if you would my disciple be;
deny yourself the world forsake
and humbly follow after me.

Take up your cross; be not ashamed! Let not disgrace your spirit fill! For God Himself endured to die upon a cross on Calvary's hill.

PSALM:

I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

LIFT HIGH THE CROSS

R. Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim, till all the world
adore His sacred name.

Led on their way by this triumphant sign, the hosts of God in conquering ranks combine. R.

Each newborn servant of the Crucified bears on the brow
the seal of Him who died. R.

DRAWING STRENGTH FROM OUR LADY OF SORROWS BY KIMBERLY HAHN

Speaker and author Kimberly Hahn, wife of Dr. Scott Hahn and mother of six, is a convert to the Catholic Faith. Although honoring Mary was difficult for her to understand initially, she began to encounter Mary's loving guidance in little ways on a daily basis. In this presentation, Kimberly reflects on the joys and sorrows that Mary prayerfully experienced during her time on earth, and shares how her example leads us closer to Christ.
