Sunday, September 26, 2021

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

At that time, John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us." Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me." - Mk 9:38-39

SACRED HEART NEEDS YOU

Following the theme from Vatican II to Synod 16, Sacred Heart needs to become a self-sufficient Amazing parish.

We need parishioners to step forward and volunteer using their charisms to provide programs, management, and to help our parish grow:

We need your assistance on at least one of the following councils, commissions, and programs:

Finance Council

Education/ Evangelization Commission

Christian Service Commission

Worship Commission

Nursing Center

Communion Service

Religious Education Teacher

If you are unsure, or would like more information about one of these opportunities please call the office for more details 248-852-4170.

If you would be willing to share the gifts that God has provided you please call the office 248-852-4170 x12 and we will get you in contact with the leader of that activity.

Reflect AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

Early in their Exodus journey, Moses taught the young Joshua an important lesson on avoiding jealousy and trusting the Lord's providence. How do you avoid the trap of jealousy and envy?

Second Reading:

James speaks of the trappings and dangers of excessive wealth.

What do you think should be the believer's proper disposition toward money?

Gospel:

Jesus warns his disciples against the danger of causing other believers to sin. What do you think would motivate a Christian to do this?

HEARTS ON FIRE

at Sacred Heart
Where Faith is Known,
Lived, & Shared

"Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire!" St. Catherine of Siena

LISTEN to Fruitful Discipleship—The Charism of LEADERSHIP empowers a Christian to be an agent of God's purposes by sharing a new and compelling vision of a better future with others and then directing the overall efforts of the group as they work together to make that vision a reality....asks, "What can we do together to change things for the better?".... others find it compelling and want to join in.... starts new vision-centered groups.... need people with charisms of Helps and Administration to implement the vision.

(Fruitful Discipleship, by Sherry Weddell, pg 144-146)

PRAY: Tear or cut off this prayer and keep it where you'll remember to pray it throughout the week

Come, Holy Spirit, Lord of the Gifts, to Sacred Heart Church and to our Family's Parishes; Open our minds and hearts to hear your voice and feel your direction. Reveal to each of us the special and particular gifts (Charisms) You have given to us to use for others. Provide opportunities to test and discern whether they might have the Charism of LEADERSHIP. Reveal to them how You want them to use the Charisms you've given, and give them the desire and will to do it. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in each of us the fire of Your love as we discern and use the Charisms you have given. Amen!

ASK & ACT: What is this note saying to me? Do I love identifying ways in which groups of people can work together to make a difference, especially as it pertains to being a disciple of Jesus? Have others told me that I am a person of unusual vision? Am I energized by gathering a group around a vision and leading them to make the vision happen? Have I ever started a new, fruitful mission-centered group or organization? Have I successfully led a group of people through the process of turning a faith-based vision or goal into reality? I will pray over these questions, asking God to lead me into discernment of whether (or not) He has given me the Charism of LEADERSHIP, and ask for the desire and will to know how I might use any of my charisms in our parish or my community.

Saint OF THE WEEK

SEPTEMBER 14 | BLESSES HERMAN THE CRIPPLE

On September 30, it is the feast day of St. Jerome. One of the greatest Biblical scholars of Christendom, Saint Jerome was born of Christian parents at Stridon in Dalmatia around the year 345. Educated at the local school, he then studied rhetoric in Rome for eight years, before returning to Aquilea to set up a community of ascetics. When that community broke up after three years Jerome went to the east. He met an old hermit named Malchus, who inspired the saint to live in a bare cell, dressed in sackcloth, studying the Scriptures.

He learned Hebrew from a rabbi. Then he returned to Antioch and was reluctantly ordained priest. With his bishop he visited Constantinople and became friendly with Saints Gregory Nazianzen and Gregory of Nyssa. And then in 382 he went again to Rome, to become the personal secretary of Pope Damasus. Here he met his dearest friends, a wealthy woman called Paula, her daughter Eustochium and another wealthy woman named Marcella.

Here too he began his finest work. Commissioned by the pope, he began to revise the Latin version of the psalms and the New Testament, with immense care and scholarship. Jerome eventually translated the whole of the Bible into the Latin version which is known as the Vulgate. But when Damasus died, his enemies forced the saint to leave Rome.

Accompanied by Paula and Eustochium, Jerome went to Bethlehem. There he lived for thirty-four years till his death in 420, building a monastery over which he presided, and a convent headed first by Paula and after her death by Eustochium. The saint set up a hospice for the countless pilgrims to that place. His scholarship, his polemics, his treatises, and letters often provoked anger and always stimulated those who read them. 'Plato located the soul of man in the head,' he wrote, 'Christ located it in the heart.' He is the patron saint of archeologists, archivists, Bible scholars, librarians, libraries, students, and translators.

The fruitfulness of evangelization depends upon the graces called down through intercession.

- ~ For continued spiritual wisdom and good health for Archbishop Vigneron, the Regional Bishops and the pastors and deacons of our Family, especially Fr. Mark our Moderator, as they continue to lead us on the path toward being a more missionary diocese and Family.
- ~ For the priests, deacons, staffs, lay ecclesial ministers, and parishioners of our Wave 2 Families, that they will prayerfully prepare for their launch next year.
- ~ For all parishioners at Sacred Heart and our Family to take advantage of opportunities provided throughout the whole Family to learn about each other, our faith, and to grow closer to Jesus and each other.
- ~ For each Sacred Heart parishioner to receive, by Grace, the desire to discern how the Lord is calling them to serve His church, and then the will and the strength to offer it.

We ask all this in the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit (Sign of the Cross). Amen.

JOIN SACRED HEART PARISH FINANCE COUNCIL

We are looking for new members to serve on the Sacred Heart Parish Finance Council

Are you a registered parishioner with background in business, finance, marketing or operations management? Or maybe you are a college student who wants to see how a parish is managed and how decisions are made. We need of additional members for the Finance Council. We are looking for people to help create the budget, approve and advise on spending for maintenance, projects, and quotes and contracts. The time commitment is once a month for a Finance Council meeting and time outside the meetings to research information on contract options and prepare for meetings or assist on committees. We need your ideas and expertise to make sure Sacred Heart continues to thrive in the new Family of Parishes initiative.

If interested or you would like more information please contact Mike Merlo at 248-852-4170 x12 in the parish office.

GOSPEL MEDITATION ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

What are the little ones? They are the poor, the marginalized, the women and men at the well, the Zacchaeus' looking for Jesus from a tree, those mired in sin, the blind who want to see, and the lame who want to walk. They are the lepers and the different ones who have been told that they are unclean, and the ones who suffer from abuse and grave injustices and oppression. They are children who want nothing more than to be loved and enjoy celebrating their innocence. These are all the little ones and they are all vulnerable. Life already brings them burdens, we don't need to add to them.

St. Oscar Romero said, "When the church hears the cry of the oppressed it cannot but denounce the social structures that give rise to and perpetuate the misery from which the cry arises." Why are so many people still so gravely hurting? We have the resources and the means to make things better. We choose not to. There are still those things called greed, pride, lust, apathy, jealousy, gluttony, and anger that prevent us from seeing each other and people to be loved and not objects to be used. Is this how God intended things to be?

God loves what is good and upright. It doesn't matter who did it or where it came from. In God's eyes, the end result is always faith, hope, and love. Those will always unite a person with God. We fill our lives with many things that are not good either for ourselves or for others. All of us have to work to discover what it is, exactly, that leads to the world's brokenness. There are people, systems, and ideologies in place that foster oppression and injustice rather than equity and fairness. Sadly, our complacency can be the greatest evil. Turning a blind eye, ignoring the truth, and believing that we are helpless to fix so great a problem, does little to move us closer to the kingdom of God. As members of the Body of Christ, we cannot condone anything that keeps people in misery.

As it is said, charity begins at home. Perhaps a good place to start is with our own households and making sure their foundations are properly laid. ©LPI

PRAYER WARRIORS NEEDED!

Christ said, "Wherever two or more are gathered in my name, I will be with them" (Mt. 18:20). The Intercessory Prayer Team at Sacred Heart will begin again to meet in-person, between the 9:00 & 11:00 a.m. Masses:

Sunday, Oct. 3 at 10:00 a.m. in the Chapel.

We pray specifically for our parish, our Family of Parishes, the Archdiocese of Detroit and the world. We also pray Lectio Divina on the Sunday Mass's Gospel, asking the Holy Spirit to lead us in applying its message to our Church's needs. At this meeting we will also be discerning specifics of how we will work as a team going forward. This whole transformation in the Archdiocese of Detroit, right down to the individual parishioner's level, has been, and continues to be, driven and supported by the prayers of Intercessory Prayer Teams throughout the AOD. Come join in the privilege, the work, and especially in the joy of Sacred Heart's Intercessory Prayer Team!

DISASTER RELIEF

Several parishioners have asked how to help those whose lives have been challenged by natural Disaster (Earthquakes and Hurricanes) in Haiti and in the United States. There are two options we would like to present.

Option 1 is through the United States Council of Catholic Bishops. You can send a check directly to USCCB Bishops Emergency Disaster Fund, P.O. Box 96279, Washington, D.C., 20090-6278.

Option 2 is through the St. Vincent DePaul Society Disaster Relief Program. Just write a check to St. Vincent DePaul Society and annotate in the memo for Disaster relief. Put this in an envelope and write SVDP Disaster Relief on it and put it in the weekly collection. Our St. Vincent DePaul Society will then mail these to the St. Vincent DePaul Disaster Relief Fund.

If you have questions or need further assistance please call the office at 248-852-4170 ext 10. Thank you for

HYMNS

Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty
 Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee
 Holy, holy, holy! Merciful and mighty
 God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

Holy, holy, holy! Though the darkness hide thee
 Though the eye of sinful
 man thy glory may not see.

Only Thou art holy;
 there is none beside Thee
 Perfect in power, in love and purity

Psalm:

The precepts of the Lord
 give joy to the heart.

How Can I Keep From Singing?

My life goes on in endless song above
 earth's lamentations, I hear the real, though far-off hymn that hails a new creation. Through all the tumult and the strife I hear its music ringing,
 It sounds an echo in my soul.
 How can I keep from singing?

While though the tempest loudly
 roars, I hear the truth, it liveth.
 And though the darkness 'round me
 close, songs in the night it giveth.
 No storm can shake my inmost calm,
 while to that rock I'm clinging.
 Since love is lord of heaven and earth,
 how can I keep from singing?

YCP Detroit invites you to join us for an evening on Wednesday, September 29th with Ray Scott, President and CEO of Lear corporation. We welcome all young adults in the area for faith, food and fellowship. For more information on the evening, please visit our website at YCPDetroit.org

WATCH THÉRÈSE

A pampered child from a middle-class 19th century French family, Therese Martin journeys to Rome to beg Pope Leo XIII for permission to enter the Carmelite monastery at the unheard-of age of 15. Once admitted she experiences the joys and rigors of monastic life, and makes the surprising yet simple discovery that holiness can be achieved by small acts of love and compassion – a spiritual path she calls her "Little Way."

LEARN

ANGELS: BISHOP FULTON SHEEN

In this compilation of three episodes from his classic television program, "Life is Worth Living" Bishop Fulton Sheen delivers his thoughts on various elements of the Catholic Faith with his ever-present humor, animated presentation, and captivating mode of speaking. In the first segment, "Angels," Bishop Sheen explicates the nature of angels and the meaningful role they play in our world.

LISTEN

THE CASE FOR JESUS BY DR. BRANT PITRE

Dr. Brant Pitre, Scripture scholar and bestselling author, uses biblical and historical evidence to bolster the "case for Jesus" by exposing the problems with the many false theories that have been introduced over the past hundred years, resulting in widespread skepticism about the reliability of Christian Faith. He tackles head-on questions like: Were the four Gospels written anonymously? Did Jesus claim to be God? Did Jesus fulfill the Jewish prophecies of the Messiah? and many more.
