Sunday, October 17, 2021

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Get to Know Father Joe

Born in Manhattan on September 1, 1940, Father Joseph (Father Joe) A. Grimaldi grew up in the Bronx. After finishing grade school at Holy Rosary and high school at All Hallows High, he became interested in joining the Christian Brothers of Ireland who taught at that school. His formation included Novitiate on the Hudson (Santa Maria), Scholasticate in New Jersey (Lakewood) and graduation from Iona College in New Rochelle, New York.

He received his first teaching assignment in 1962 going to Brother Rice High School in Birmingham, Michigan where he taught Religion, English, French and Latin. After 11 years at Brother Rice as teacher and administrator, he was sent to Saint Lawrence High School in Chicago for a short (six months) preparation to take on the principal's job at Damien High School in Honolulu, Hawaii. Meanwhile, in his spare time and during the summers he received a Masters in French at Assumption in Worcester, MA and MSA in administration at Notre Dame du Lac in South Bend.

After finishing his term as principal of Brother Rice High School in 1986, he began his priestly studies at Catholic University of America where he earned a MA in Theology. He was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Honolulu on August 4, 1990 and after five years as pastor at Saint John Vianney Parish in Kailua he was sent to the Angelicum in Rome to study Canon Law with the Dominicans. Upon receiving his JCL in Rome, he returned to Honolulu in 1998 and was appointed both Judicial Vicar and Vicar General for the Diocese of Honolulu.

In the year 2007, he started "exploring" the central coast of California and served as a Chaplain at Dominican Hospital in Santa Cruz for about six months. In 2007, the Bishop of Monterey appointed him pastor of Holy Eucharist Parish in Corralitos, California and postulator for the cause of Cora Evans for canonization.

In 2011, he was already 71 and so began his part-time retirement, helping at different churches and working as the Defender of the Bond for annulment cases in the Military Archdiocese.

He returned to Michigan in 2014 and has most recently served as senior priest at St. Hugo of the Hills, and as Chaplain at Brother Rice. He also serves as a trustee for the Brother Rice Endowment Fund.

Now, at 81, he continues his ministry here at Sacred Heart Church as our pastor. Along with all of his duties as our parish priest, he even does a podcast. Make sure to check it out at thefatherjoepodcast.com.

Welcome Father Joe to Sacred Heart! We are blessed to have you.

JOIN THE CHOIR

If you are interested in joining the choir, please join us for our first meeting on Sunday, October 24 right after the 11:00 am Mass.

Reflect AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

Isaiah speaks of our redemption through the suffering of the Lord's servant. When have you experienced God's presence in your suffering?

Second Reading:

Hebrews tells us that Jesus is able to sympathize with our weaknesses because he, too, "has been tested in every way." What are some ways that you are tested in life?

Gospel:

Jesus uses the request of James and John as a teachable moment for his disciples on the importance of humility and service to others. What other qualities do you think are necessary for true discipleship?

HEARTS ON FIRE

at Sacred Heart
Where Faith is Known,
Lived, & Shared

"Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire!" St. Catherine of Siena

LISTEN to Fruitful Discipleship—The Charism of GIVING empowers a Christian to be a cheerful channel of God's provision by providing money and material goods with extraordinary generosity to those in need. This is not simply giving of self.... Centered around giving financial and/or material resources (money, food, clothing, property, etc.) so that needs of others are met and purposes of God can be achieved.... Are either empowered to make money, or find that money and other resources mysteriously come to them so these things can be provided to others.

(Fruitful Discipleship, by Sherry Weddell, pg 146-149)

PRAY: Tear or cut off this prayer and keep it where you'll remember to pray it throughout the week

Come, Holy Spirit, Lord of the Gifts, to Sacred Heart Church and to our Family's Parishes; Open our minds and hearts to hear your voice and feel your direction. Reveal to each of us the special and particular gifts (Charisms) You have given to us to use for others. Provide opportunities to test and discern whether one might have the Charism of GIVING. Reveal to them how You want them to use any of the Charisms you've given, and give them the desire and will to do it. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in each of us the fire of Your love as we discern and use the Charism Group you have given. Amen!

ASK & ACT: What is this note saying to me?

Do I find it a source of joy and spiritual fulfillment to give to those in need? Do I make sacrifices in order to be able to give more to others in need? Have people told me they are surprised by how much I give away? Do I feel called to personally provide material resources for Kingdom purposes, knowing that God will take care of me? Are people close to me sometimes uncomfortable with how much I give away? I will pray over these questions, asking God to lead me in discernment of whether (or not) He has given me the Charism of GIVING, and ask for the desire and will to know how I might use any of my charism group in our parish or my community. "No Bystanders!"

Saint OF THE WEEK

OCTOBER 21 | SAINTS URSULA AND COMPANIONS

On October 21, it is the feast day of Sts. Ursula and Companions. According to a legend that appeared in the tenth century, Ursula was the daughter of a Christian King in Britain and was granted a three-year postponement of a marriage she did not wish to a pagan prince. With ten ladies in waiting, each attended by a thousand maidens, she embarked on a voyage across the North Sea, sailed up the Rhine to Basle, Switzerland, and then went to Rome. On their way back they were all massacred by pagan Huns at Cologne in about 451 when Ursula refused to marry their chieftain.

According to another legend, America was settled by British colonizers and soldiers after Emperor Magnus Clemens Maximus conquered Britain and Gaul in 383. The ruler of the settlers, Cynan Meiriadog, called on King Dionotus of Cornwall for wives for the settlers, whereupon Dionotus sent his daughter Ursula, who was to marry Cynan, with eleven thousand noble maidens and sixty thousand common women. Their fleet was shipwrecked, and all the women were enslaved or murdered.

The legends are pious fictions, but what is true is that one Clematus, a senator, rebuilt a basilica in Cologne that had originally been built, probably at the beginning of the fourth century, to honor a group of virgins who had been martyred at Cologne. They were evidently venerated enough to have had a church built in their honor, but who they were and how many of them there are unknown. From these meager facts, the legend of Ursula grew and developed. St. Ursula is the namesake for the Ursuline Order, founded for the education of young Catholic girls and women. She is the patron saint of Catholic education (especially of girls), Cologne, Germany, educators, students, and teachers.

LIVING THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the Week

It's the positions of power and great authority that people often admire. We equate success with six figure incomes, high positions, management, and influence. We even go above and beyond to find favor with our bosses so that we can get a little extra recognition and maybe the next promotion when it comes up. This is the way of the world. Those who have their values set on earthly things are going to work by earthly rules. We forget that it doesn't work that way in the Kingdom of God. Success is measured not from the place of status, influence, or prestige but from the place of humility, service, and sacrifice. The authority that one hopes to achieve is not an authority over others but an authority that comes from wisdom and developing one's relationship with God. Jesus flips the tables on our priorities. Even the first disciples had a tough time understanding this. They really thought that they would somehow receive a privilege or bonus from being faithful. We often operate under that same illusion. ©LPi

The fruitfulness of evangelization depends upon the graces called down through intercession.

- ~ For Archbishop Vigneron and the Auxiliary Bishops, Fr. Mark Brauer, and Fr. Joe Grimaldi, that the Holy Spirit will continue to pour out gifts of wisdom and discernment for the best way to move Sacred Heart and our Sibling parishes into Families of Parishes.
- ~ For the faithful in Sacred Heart and our Sibling parishes to be ignited by the Holy spirit to grow in their knowledge and understanding of their faith, to become joyful missionary disciples, and to serve each other.
- ~ For each Family member to be charged with ensuring their parish is a place of welcome and hospitality, and to accompany new members on their journey of faith.
- ~ For people to be excited to belong to the Families of Parishes and to be Catholic, to find solace, answers, and support in their parishes.

We ask all this in the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit (Sign of the Cross). Amen.

Sacred Heart Needs You

Following the theme from Vatican II to Synod 16, Sacred Heart needs to become a self-sufficient Amazing parish.

We need parishioners to step forward and volunteer using their charisms to provide programs, management, and to help our parish grow:

We need your assistance on at least on of the following councils, commissions, and programs:

- |  |                                |                                    |
|--|--------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| ■ Finance Council                      | ■ Christian Service Commission | ■ Nursing Center Communion Service |
| ■ Education/ Evangelization Commission | ■ Worship Commission           | ■ Religious Education Teacher      |

If you are unsure, or would like more information about one of these opportunities please call the office for more details 248-852-4170. If you would be willing to share the gifts that God has provided you please call the office 248-852-4170 x12 and we will get you in contact with the leader of that activity.

THANKS "FORE!" YOU!

The Sacred Heart Knights of Columbus Council - wants to thank all the supporters of our September 11th - 15th Annual Golf Outing Fundraiser for making it a huge success!

With gorgeous weather, 31 teams, 121 golfers (including 30 women!) and a host of great sponsors and donors, this year's event at The Fountains Golf & Banquet was our biggest and best ever!

Thanks to your generosity, we can continue supporting our many Catholic charities that defend life – both born and unborn

Rain Down

R. Rain down, rain down, rain down your love on your people.

Rain down, rain down, rain down
your love, God of life.

Faithful and true is the word of our
God. All of God's works are so worthy of trust.

God's mercy falls on the just and the right; full of God's love is the Earth. R.

We who revere and find hope in our God live in the kindness and joy of God's wing.

God will protect us from darkness and death; God will not leave us to starve. R.

Psalm:

Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.

Take Up Your Cross

Take up your cross, the Savior said,
if you would my disciple be;

Deny yourself, the world forsake,
and humbly follow after me.

Take up your cross, be not ashamed!
Let not disgrace your spirit fill!

For God himself endured to die upon a cross, on Calvary's hill.

WIDOWED FRIENDS

Mass at St. Malachy Church
Sunday, October 24th at 2:00pm
14115 Fourteen Mile Rd.
Sterling Heights 48312

All widowed men and women are invited to join us on Sunday, October 24th at 2:00pm as we celebrate a Mass for widows and widowers at St Malachy Church in Sterling Heights. After the Mass we will go into the social hall for friendship and refreshments. Volunteers are needed for refreshments, set up and clean up. Call Sandy at 586-991-7374 for more information.

WATCH

THE JEWELER'S SHOP: A MODERN MYSTERY BY POPE JOHN PAUL II

Based on Pope John Paul II's best-selling book, this film tells of the struggles and triumphs in the marriages of three couples. A mysterious Jeweller (Burt Lancaster) acts as a mystical advisor to the couples, encouraging them to keep love at the center of their lives. Beautifully filmed with an outstanding cast that includes Olivia Hussey and Ben Cross. John Paul II called it "the best possible film based on my play."
