30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

JOIN THE CHOIR

If you are interested in joining the choir, please join us for our first meeting on Sunday, October 24 right after the 11:00 am Mass.

Reflect AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

The prophet Jeremiah foreshadowed the joy that Israel would experience when the Lord delivers them from captivity in Babylon. What are some upcoming events you anticipate celebrating in the name of the Lord?

Second Reading:

The author of Hebrews tells us that God glorified Christ by making him "high priest." What are some gifts that you have received from God?

Gospel:

Jesus heard and responded to the desperate pleas of the blind man, Bartimaeus. What worries or fears do you need to bring to the Lord?

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way. - Mk 10:51-52

HEARTS ON FIRE

at Sacred Heart
Where Faith is Known,
Lived, & Shared

"Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire!" St. Catherine of Siena

LISTEN to Fruitful Discipleship—The Charism of PASTORING empowers a Christian to be an effective channel of God's love, building Christian community by nurturing the relationships and long-term spiritual growth of a group. Not the same as the office of a Catholic pastor of a parish, which requires ordination....Can be given to priests or lay people....men or women....Directed at shepherding groups, not individuals....Functions primarily within the Christian community to build it up....Nurtures the network of relationships between believing Christians by bringing them together to pray, study, or share their faith....Gathers people to grow—generally in smaller groups (20, not 200)....Fosters community to make disciples.

(Fruitful Discipleship, by Sherry Weddell, pg 126-129)

PRAY: Tear or cut off this prayer and keep it where you'll remember to pray it throughout the week

Come, Holy Spirit, Lord of the Gifts, to Sacred Heart Church and to our Family's Parishes; Open our minds and hearts to hear your voice and feel your direction. Reveal to each of us the special and particular gifts (Charisms) You have given to us to use for others. Provide opportunities to test and discern whether one might have the Charism of PASTORING. Reveal to them how You want them to use any of the Charisms you've given, and give them the desire and will to do it. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in each of us the fire of Your love as we discern and use the Charism Group you have given. Amen!

ASK & ACT: What is this note saying to me?

Do I know that Christian community is crucial for the spiritual growth of disciples? Do I love to bring a group of Catholics together to share or study their faith? Do others tell me they enjoy being part of spiritual growth groups that I facilitate? Do I enjoy leading these small Christian communities, having a sense of the presence of God when disciples gather together to pray or share their faith? Have others told me that I have a gift for encouraging the spiritual growth of a group of Christians? Have I helped a group of Christians grow by bringing them together in the past? I will pray over these questions, asking God to lead me in discernment of whether (or not) He has given me the Charism of PASTORING, and ask for the desire and will to know how I might use any of my charism group in our parish or my community. "No Bystanders!"

Saint OF THE WEEK

OCTOBER 27 | SAINT FRUMENTIUS

On October 27, it is the feast day of St. Frumentius. When still mere boys (Frumentius and his brother) they accompanied their uncle Metropius on a voyage to Abyssinia. When their ship stopped at one of the harbors of the Red Sea, people of the neighborhood massacred the whole crew, except for Edesius and Frumentius, who were taken as slaves to the King of Axum. This occurred about 316. The two boys soon gained the favor of the king, who raised them to positions of trust and shortly before his death gave them their liberty.

The widowed queen, however, prevailed upon them to remain at the court and assist her in the education of the young prince Erazanes and in the administration of the kingdom during the prince's minority. They remained and (especially Frumentius) used their influence on spread Christianity. First, they encouraged the Christian merchants, who were temporarily in the country, to practice their faith openly by meeting at places of public worship; later they also converted some of the natives.

When the prince came of age, Edesius returned to his friends and relatives at Tyre and was ordained priest but did not return to Abyssinia. Frumentius, on the other hand, who was eager for the conversion of Abyssinia, accompanied Edesius as far as Alexandria, where he requested St. Athanasius to send a bishop and some priests to Abyssinia. St. Athanasius considered Frumentius himself the most suitable person for bishop and consecrated him in 328, according to others between 340-46.

Frumentius returned to Abyssinia, erected his episcopal see at Axum, baptized King Aeizanas, who had meanwhile succeeded to the throne, built many churches, and spread the Christian Faith throughout Abyssinia. The people called him Abuna (Our Father) or Abba Salama (Father of Peace), titles still given to the head of the Abyssinian Church.

In 365 Emperor Constantius addressed a letter to King Aeizanas and his brother Saizanas in which he vainly requested them to substitute the Arian bishop Theophilus for Frumentius. The Latins celebrate the feast of Frumentius on 27 October, the Greeks on 30 November, and the Copts on 18 December. Abyssinian tradition credits him with the first Ethiopian translation of the New Testament. He is the patron saint of the Kingdom of Aksum.

Thank You For Your Generosity!

The Sacred Heart Knights of Columbus thank you for your generous support of our recent "Tootsie Roll Drive" for the Intellectually and Developmentally Impaired. Thanks to your generosity, we were able to collect $1,112 towards helping local charities - including St. Louis Center, Angel's Place, St. Francis Camp, Arc of Oakland County, and Dutton Farms - that work with this very special population of God's children! May God bless you!

The fruitfulness of evangelization depends upon the graces called down through intercession.

~ For Archbishop Vigneron and the Auxiliary Bishops, and all priests in the Archdiocese of Detroit, to continue to find refreshment and fraternity after their Fall Convocation last week; and that the Holy Spirit would continue to fill their hearts with renewed zeal for their pastoral and sacramental work, giving them supernatural vigor to unleash the Gospel and bring more souls to Jesus Christ.

- ~ For our Family of Parishes to grow in love, understanding, patience, kindness, and zeal for their faith.
- ~ For the many ministries in this FoP to be strengthened with many volunteers, voices, youth, and new people to expand our outreach of Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy to the 4 communities in our Family.
- ~ For those who left Sacred Heart in the past, to feel the love and care of Fr. Joe and all the members of our parish, so they will be drawn back into community with us and to begin anew—"Jesus makes all things new" (Rev 21:5).

We ask all this in the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit (Sign of the Cross). Amen.

SACRED HEART NEEDS YOU

Following the theme from Vatican II to Synod 16, Sacred Heart needs to become a self-sufficient Amazing parish.

We need parishioners to step forward and volunteer using their charisms to provide programs, management, and to help our parish grow:

We need your assistance on at least on of the following councils, commissions, and programs:

- |  |                                |                                    |
|--|--------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| ■ Finance Council                      | ■ Christian Service Commission | ■ Nursing Center Communion Service |
| ■ Education/ Evangelization Commission | ■ Worship Commission           | ■ Religious Education Teacher      |

If you are unsure, or would like more information about one of these opportunities please call the office for more details 248-852-4170. If you would be willing to share the gifts that God has provided you please call the office 248-852-4170 x12 and we will get you in contact with the leader of that activity.

GARDENING ANGELS

Fall is in the Air

Everyone has done a great job this year of keeping up their garden spots. Now is the time to put everything to bed for the coming winter months. Take a good look at your garden spot, a few last things to do before winter, pull all of the annuals out, weed, trim, cut all of the tops off except for the grasses and don't fertilize any more. This would really help with a good start for the Spring.

Thank you for helping to make the grounds look beautiful. You should be proud of everyone's effort.

*God Bless,
Pat Guibord*

LIVING THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the Week

"To fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek Him the greatest adventure; to find Him the greatest human achievement."

These words of St. Augustine are timeless. Every human being would certainly profit with wisdom if they realized Who calls them and to Whom they belong. There is only one way to satisfy the deepest longing of the human heart and that is in relationship with our Creator. When we seek God with true sincerity of heart and God passes us along our way, we will cry out, "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!" We will instinctively know that it is only our Divine Master who can restore our sight and heal us. The blind man fell in love with Jesus, embarked upon this life-saving adventure to reach him and achieved a goal many have only remotely thought possible. This is mercy in action. No matter how far we stray or how blind we become God patiently waits to console us, guide us, and heal us. All we need to do is desire Him with all our heart. ©LPI

SING OF THE LORD'S GOODNESS

Sing of the Lord's goodness, Father of all wisdom, come to him and bless his name. Mercy he has shown us, his love is forever, faithful to the end of days.

Come then all you nations, sing of the Lord's goodness, melodies of praise and thanks to God. Ring out the Lord's glory, praise him with your music, worship him and bless his name.

Power he has wielded, honor is his garment, risen from the snares of death. His word he has spoken, one bread he has broken, new life he now gives to all.

Come then all you nations, sing of the Lord's goodness, melodies of praise and thanks to God. Ring out the Lord's glory, praise him with your music, worship him and bless his name.

Psalm:

The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

SING TO THE MOUNTAINS

R. Sing to the mountains, sing to the sea. Raise your voices, lift your hearts. This is the day the Lord has made. Let all the earth rejoice.

I will give thanks to you, my Lord.

You have answered my plea. You have saved my soul from death. You are my strength and my song. R.

Holy, holy, holy Lord. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. R.

THE INNOCENCE OF FATHER BROWN AUDIO BOOK BY G.K. CHESTERTON

One of the most memorable sleuths in the canon of detective fiction has to be Father Brown, the small priest with "a face as round and dull as a Norfolk dumpling", but who nevertheless outwits the greatest criminal minds with his wisdom regarding human nature. Brought to life here by actor Kevin O'Brien in a series of dramatic readings.
