31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The scribe said to him, "Well said, teacher. You are right in saying, 'He is One and there is no other than he.'" And when Jesus saw that he answered with understanding, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." - Mk 12:32, 34ab

Join the Knights of Columbus for the THE 5TH SUNDAY ROSARY FOR LIFE

October 31st | St. Thomas More | 2:00 p.m.

Please join the Knights of Council #8659, as we conclude this month of October that is dedicated to the Rosary, to pray for the defense of the dignity of human life, for an end to abortion and the culture of death.

Please note that this 5th Sunday Rosary will be celebrated at our "Round-Table Parish" of St. Thomas More on Sunday, October 31st at 2:00 pm. We will reflect on the significance of Mary, the Rosary, and the Sorrowful Mysteries, during these turbulent times. We will also pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet. Please make plans now to join us!

HEARTS ON FIRE

Where Faith is Known,
Lived, & Shared

"Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire!" St. Catherine of Siena

LISTEN to "Charisms 101" Again—[Over the last few months, we've looked at some charisms you might possibly have been given. Let's review what and why they are important.] You and I received the Holy Spirit in our baptism... But the public manifestation of the Holy Spirit—fruit-bearing—requires intentional cooperation on our part. We must choose in faith to do what God has called and anointed us to do... Charisms are supernaturally empowered graces given to apostles who have a mission to bring the presence and love of Jesus Christ to a specific setting or situation. Charisms are whole life gifts that apostles take with them everywhere they go... are always [used] for others... are distinct from natural talents... cannot be used for evil... might be given as a single charism, but typically are given as a group of 2-5.

(Fruitful Discipleship, by Sherry Weddell, pg 97-111)

PRAY: Tear or cut off this prayer and keep it where you'll remember to pray it throughout the week

Come, Holy Spirit, Lord of the Gifts, to Sacred Heart Church and to our Sister Parishes; Enkindle the fire in our hearts to "intentionally cooperate" with the special Charisms you gave us at our baptism. Open our minds to "choose" mission—that particular calling you anointed us to do in order to "bring the love of Jesus Christ" to a specific place or person in our world. Guide us into discernment of these Charisms, so that we may use them for Your glory. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in each of us the fire of your love as we discern and use the Charisms you have given. Amen!

ASK & ACT: What is this note saying to me?

Remember, there are "No Bystanders!" This week I'll look back on my life to see if there were certain times or situations where I felt I was doing God's work or He was working through me. If so, did I get any feedback that others thought so too? If not, I will ask God to reveal to me a situation this week where He could use me, and watch for opportunities to say "Yes." And I will also think back on the Charisms presented these last few weeks—Leadership, Wisdom, Knowledge, Giving, Pastoring,—to discern if I might have any of them that I could offer to our parish or Family to build it up.

Saint OF THE WEEK

NOVEMBER 3 | SAINT MARTIN DE PORRES

St. Martin de Porres was born in Lima, Peru on December 9, 1579. Martin was the illegitimate son to a Spanish gentleman and a freed slave from Panama, of African or possibly Native American descent. At a young age, Martin's father abandoned him, his mother and his younger sister, leaving Martin to grow up in deep poverty. After spending just two years in primary school, Martin was placed with a barber/surgeon where he would learn to cut hair and the medical arts.

As Martin grew older, he experienced a great deal of ridicule for being of mixed-race. In Peru, by law, all descendants of African or Indians were not allowed to become full members of religious orders. Martin, who spent long hours in prayer, found his only way into the community he longed for was to ask the Dominicans of Holy Rosary Priory in Lima to accept him as a volunteer who performed the most menial tasks in the monastery. In return, he would be allowed to wear the habit and live within the religious community. When Martin was 15, he asked for admission into the Dominican Convent of the Rosary in Lima and was received as a servant boy and eventually was moved up to the church officer in charge of distributing money to deserving poor.

During his time in the Convent, Martin took on his old trades of barbering and healing. He also worked in the kitchen, did laundry and cleaned. After eight more years with the Holy Rosary, Martin was granted the privilege to take his vows as a member of the Third Order of Saint Dominic by the prior Juan de Lorenzana who decided to disregard the law restricting Martin based on race.

Martin grew to become a Dominican lay brother in 1603 at the age of 24. Ten years later, after he had been presented with the religious habit of a lay brother, Martin was assigned to the infirmary where he would remain in charge until his death. He became known for encompassing the virtues need to carefully and patiently care for the sick, even in the most difficult situations.

Martin was praised for his unconditional care of all people, regardless of race or wealth. He took care of everyone from the Spanish nobles to the African slaves. Martin didn't care if the person was diseased or dirty, he would welcome them into his own home.

Martin's life reflected his great love for God and all of God's gifts. It is said he had many extraordinary abilities, including aerial flights, bilocation, instant cures, miraculous knowledge, spiritual knowledge and an excellent relationship with animals. Martin also founded an orphanage for abandoned children and slaves and is known for raising dowry for young girls in short amounts of time.

During an epidemic in Lima, many of the friars in the Convent of the Rosary became very ill. Locked away in a distant section of the convent, they were kept away from the professed. However, on more than one occasion, Martin passed through the locked doors to care for the sick. However, he became disciplined for not following the rules of the Convent, but after replying, "Forgive my error, and please instruct me, for I did not know that the precept of obedience took precedence over that of charity," he was given full liberty to follow his heart in mercy.

In January of 1639, when Martin was 60-years-old, he became very ill with chills, fevers and tremors causing him agonizing pain. He would experience almost a year full of illness until he passed away on November 3, 1639.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE

Next weekend (November 6th and 7th) we will be starting our annual Thanksgiving food drive for our Thanksgiving food boxes. The food boxes will provide those in our area that cannot afford a special Thanksgiving meal with a turkey, pumpkin pie, and all the trimmings. In addition, we try to provide enough food so that they can have a nice breakfast, lunch, and supper. We are truly blessed with the gifts our Father has provided each of us. Please share these blessings with those who are less fortunate. So, in the next few weeks, please take a blue SVDP bag the table in the back of Church and return it with food for those in need. Please help us in showing our neighbor the love of God this Thanksgiving.

St. Vincent De Paul Society

The fruitfulness of evangelization depends upon the graces called down through intercession.

~ For Archbishop Vigneron and the Auxiliary Bishops, and all priests in the Archdiocese of Detroit, that the Holy Spirit would continue to fill their hearts with renewed zeal for their pastoral and sacramental work, giving them supernatural vigor to unleash the Gospel and bring more souls to Jesus Christ.

- ~ For all in our Family to be able to communicate appropriately, efficaciously, and wisely throughout our parishes, the events, ministries, and the many opportunities to grow in faith.
- ~ For the many ministries in this FoP to be strengthened with many volunteers, voices, youth, and new people to expand our outreach of Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy to the 4 communities in our Family.
- ~ May any of us who harbor negative feelings of anger, abandonment, resentment, or unforgiveness toward others remember the Lord's mercy and compassion on ourselves and, by God's Grace, extend the same forgiveness and mercy to those who hurt us.

We ask all this in the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit (sign of the Cross). Amen.

All Saints Day Prayer

Father, All-powerful and Ever-living God,

Today we rejoice in the holy men and women of every time and place.

May their prayers bring us your forgiveness and love

We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

NOW RECRUITING FOR OUR NEW WORSHIP COMMISSION!

Wednesday, Nov. 10th at 6:30 pm at Fr. Kreft Hall

Are you interested to help nourish and give direction to the liturgical and communal prayer life of Sacred Heart? Do you have a passion to help assure that our liturgies express the full beauty and wonder of the mysteries they present? Then you might be perfect for our newly constituting Worship Commission. Anyone interested to become a member, or to learn more, is invited to a meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 10th at 6:30 pm in Fr. Kreft Hall. All are welcome! For more information, call Sean Sylvester, at 248-631-8829.

Gardening Angels FALL IS IN THE AIR

Everyone has done a great job this year of keeping up their garden spots. Now is the time to put everything to bed for the coming winter months. Take a good look at your garden spot, a few last things to do before winter, pull all of the annuals out, weed, trim, cut all of the tops off except for the grasses and don't fertilize any more. This would really help with a good start for the Spring.

Thank you for helping to make the grounds look beautiful. You should be proud of everyone's effort.

*God Bless,
Pat Guibord*

Lead Me, Lord

Blessed are the poor in spirit, longing for their Lord, for God's coming kingdom shall be their's

Blessed are the sorrowing for they shall be consoled, and the meek shall come to rule the world.

Lead me Lord, lead me Lord, by
the light of truth, to seek and to find the narrow way.

Be my way, be my truth, be my life, my Lord, And lead me,
Lord, today.

Blessed are the merciful, for mercy shall be there, and the pure in heart shall see their God.

Blest are they whose hunger only holiness can fill, for I say they shall be satisfied.

Lead me Lord, lead me Lord, by
the light of truth, to seek and to
find the narrow way.

Be my way, be my truth, be my life, my Lord, And lead me, Lord, today.

Psalm:

I love you Lord, my strength.

Let There be Peace on Earth

Let there be peace on earth
and let it begin with me
Let There Be Peace on Earth,
the peace that was meant to be

With God as our Father, family all are we. Let us walk with each other, in perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me,
let this be the moment now.
With ev'ry step I take,
let this be my solemn vow:

To take each moment and live
each moment in peace eternally
Let there be peace on earth,
and let it begin with me.

TRUE REFORMERS: EPISODE FOUR SAINT CHARLES BORROMEO: THE GOOD SHEPHERD

As the Cardinal-nephew of Pope Pius IV, Saint Charles Borromeo was one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in all of Rome. Yet he chose the extraordinary challenge of reforming the enormous Archdiocese of Milan to the pampered life of a Renaissance prince, and willingly spent himself in the service of his flock.
