HEARTS ON FIRE

at Sacred Heart
Where Faith is Known,
Lived, & Shared

"Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire!" St. Catherine of Siena

LISTEN to Fruitful Discipleship—The Charism of CRAFTMANSHIP empowers a Christian to be an effective channel of God's goodness to others through sacred or secular artistic creativity that beautifies and orders the physical world. It may be used in a wide variety of faith-shaped art from painting, to filmmaking, to embroidery to cooking to architecture. Craftmanship glorifies God by creating beauty that nourishes all that is fully human... may be expressed in sacred or secular setting... need not be explicitly religious... may be used in a setting where nobody believes what we believe, but still give glory to God... baptizes our imaginations and our senses.

PRAY: Tear or cut off this prayer and keep it where you'll remember to pray it throughout the week

Come, Holy Spirit, Lord of the Gifts, to Sacred Heart Church and to our Family's Parishes; Open our minds and hearts to hear your voice and feel your direction. Reveal to each of us the special and particular gifts (Charisms) You have given to us to use for others. Provide opportunities to test and discern whether one might have the Charism of CRAFTMANSHIP. Reveal to us how You want us to use any of the Charisms you've given, and give us the desire and will to do it. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in each of us the fire of Your love as we discern and use the Charism Group you have given. Amen!

ASK & ACT: What is this note saying to me? Do I find that a really satisfying way to express my Christian faith is to design and make beautiful things? Have people told me that they love the things I make? Do I enjoy making lovely objects because they bless others and bring glory to God? Have others told me that I am unusually inventive? Does working creatively with my hands feel like prayer? I will pray over these questions, asking God to lead me in discernment of whether (or not) He has given me the Charism of CRAFTMANSHIP, and ask for the desire and will to know how I might use any of my charism group in our parish or my community. Remember: "No Bystanders!"

Saint OF THE WEEK

NOVEMBER 13 | SAINT FRANCES XAVIER CABRINI

You may recognize the name St. Frances Xavier Cabrini (1850 – 1917) as the first United States citizen to become a saint. Known for her deep trust in God, she was a courageous woman doing the work of Christ.

Her life of service began when she was first refused admission to the religious order which had educated her to be a teacher. Not one to take things face value, she instead focused her charitable work at the House of Providence Orphanage in Cadogno, Italy, and in 1877, professed vows there and took the religious habit.

When the bishop closed the orphanage in 1880, he named St. Frances Xavier Cabrini prioress of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart. However, she had a dream she was determined to fulfill. Since her early childhood, she had dreamed of being a missionary in China. Pope Leo XIII, however, urged her to see the need in the west. She traveled with six of her fellow religious sisters to New York City, where they worked with the thousands of Italian immigrants residing there.

Although she experienced many disappointments during this time, she persevered. When she arrived in New York, the house intended to be her first orphanage in the United States was not available. Rather than come back to Italy and the order she oversaw, she instead found a way to establish that orphanage elsewhere — plus a few more. Throughout her life, she is known for founding 67 institutions dedicated to caring for the poor, the abandoned, the uneducated, and the sick. She died of malaria in her own Columbus Hospital in Chicago in 1917.

The fruitfulness of evangelization depends upon the graces called down through intercession.

~ For Archbishop Vigneron and the Auxiliary Bishops, and all priests in the Archdiocese of Detroit, to be creative and zealous in their bringing Families of Parishes to fruition.

~ For all in our Family to be led by the Holy Spirit into those ministries for which God has prepared them, resisting the urge to stand by, but offering themselves to the Church as Christ did for us.

~ May all the voices in our Family be heard, and may those who hear be open to providing what they hear.

~ May everyone consider that someone they know may be called to a Vocation in the Church, and may all who are discerning a call, be led to the answer God wills for them.

We ask all this in the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit (sign of the Cross). Amen.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE

This weekend and next weekend we will be providing blue SVDP bags to help us with our food drive for Thanksgiving. Last year we were blessed to be able to share our blessings with 65 families and we expect at least that many this year.

Without your help, many of these families would not have a Thanksgiving Dinner or three meals a day. Please be generous so that we can help those in need. Many have asked what kind of food should we bring for the Thanksgiving boxes. We try to include breakfast items (pancake mix, syrup, and cereal), lunch items (peanut butter, jelly, crackers, tuna fish, and fruit), dinner items (macaroni and cheese, pasta, spaghetti sauce, canned meats, sloppy joes, chili, soup, vegetables, and rice), and of course Thanksgiving dinner trimmings (gravy, stuffing, boxed or can potatoes, cranberry sauce, jello, pickles, and vegetables). We also try to include paper products (toilet paper, napkins, facial tissues, and paper towels). Please return the blue bags you have taken with food by November 21st. Thank You for not only helping us feed those in need, but allowing us to bring hope and pass on the good news that God is alive and is working through his people to help those less fortunate. May God continue to bless you for taking care of the least of our brothers and sisters. If you have any questions, please call Mary Alice Merlo at 248-375-5378.

GOSPEL MEDITATION ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

On December 10, 1979, a very petite holy woman known as Mother Teresa of Calcutta spoke these words in her Nobel Peace Prize Acceptance Speech, "But I am sure in the families and many of our homes, maybe we are not hungry for a piece of bread, but maybe there is somebody there in the family who is unwanted, unloved, uncared, forgotten, there isn't love. Love begins at home. And love to be true has to hurt. I never forget a little child who taught me a very beautiful lesson. They heard in Calcutta, the children, that Mother Teresa had no sugar for her children, and this little one, Hindu boy four years old, he went home and he told his parents: I will not eat sugar for three days, I will give my sugar to Mother Teresa. How much a little child can give. After three days they brought into our house, and there was this little one who could scarcely pronounce my name, he loved with great love, he loved until it hurt. And this is what I bring before you, to love one another until it hurts, but don't forget that there are many children, many children, many men and women who haven't got what you have. And remember to love them until it hurts."

Living authentically and walking with holiness always involves sacrifice. It has to hurt. Only actions springing from true and deep sacrifice demonstrate true integrity. Without sacrifice, even what is apparently a generous gesture can be nothing. It is no wonder that the widow who contributed from her poverty received great admiration from Jesus and the young child in our story above the interest of Mother Teresa. It is easy to make the houses of our lives look like they are in perfect order when in fact they are in shambles within. Religion can sometimes make this hypocritical masquerade easy to accomplish. We can find ourselves in all the right holy places, reciting all of the correct prayers, participating in community collections, and reciting the proper doctrines only to find ourselves empty, shallow, self-focused, and overly anxious about personal concerns.

The one who learns to discover their inner poverty, their spiritual poverty, is the only one who can truly place him or herself at the mercy of God. It is only when we allow ourselves to be empty that we realize Who we actually need to fill us. This is the real meaning of trust. Many of us are afraid to take the plunge. We allow ourselves to detach from only so much, always keeping a watchful eye on the protection of our securities. We understand the value of poverty, but we do not want to become too poor. As long as we are able to recognize this tension, our reluctance to let go and our struggle, we can continue our journey of humbly learning how to love so deeply that it hurts. God understands and waits. ©LPi

All Are Welcome

Let us build a house where love can dwell and all can safely live, A place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive, Built of hopes and dreams and visions, rock of faith and vault of grace, here the love of Christ shall end divisions

All are welcome, all are welcome all are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where prophets speak and words are strong and true where all God's children dare to seek, to dream God's reign anew here the cross shall stand as witness and a symbol of God's grace here as one we claim the faith of Jesus

All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

Psalm:

Praise the Lord, my soul!

Go Make a Difference

R. Go make a diff'rence, we can make a diff'rence. Go make a diff'rence in the world. Go make a diff'rence, we can make a diff'rence. Go make a diff'rence in the world.

We are the salt of the earth, called to let the people see the love of God for you and me. We are the light of the world, not to be hidden but be seen. Go make a diff'rence in the world. R.

We are the hands of Christ, reaching out to those in need, the face of God for all to see. We are the spirit of hope; we are the voice of peace. Go make a diff'rence in the world. R.

BLESSED DUNS SCOTUS: DEFENDER OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

The inspiring true story of the holy Franciscan priest and theologian who won a famous debate against the Dominicans in the thirteenth century, in which he defended Our Lady's great privilege of her Immaculate Conception. Filmed in beautiful ancient monastery locations in Europe, Scotus is revealed as a humble and courageous apostle of the Faith against the oppressive anti-Catholic government in power.

FORMED NOW: CAN GOD HEAL HUMAN DIVISIONS?

A tragic consequence of sin is human division, something we all face in one way or another. In this video, Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. John Sehorn discuss how we can invite Christ into those situations of brokenness.

LISTEN

THE CONFESSIONS OF ST. AUGUSTINE

Actor Leonardo DeFilippis captures the poetry and passion of Saint Augustine of Hippo (AD 354-430) in a performance that is accessible and deeply moving. The play is astonishingly relevant for our own times. Augustine struggled with promiscuity, fathered a child out-of-wedlock and dabbled in a "new age" style cult. You'll be amazed by his relentless pursuit of Truth and encouraged by the prayerful perseverance of his faithful mother, Saint Monica.
