This Weekend, After All Masses!

HELP THE MENTALLY & DEVELOPMENTALLY IMPAIRED!

Support the Knights' Columbus Day 'Tootsie Roll Drive'!

The Knights will be outside of church following all masses this weekend, October 23-24, to collect donations to help those with special needs in our community.

Supporting the compassionate care for those with developmental and intellectual disabilities has always been an integral part of the Knights pro-life mission.

Support the tradition of the seminarians of Sacred Heart Major Seminary receiving hundreds of inner-city trick-or-treaters each Halloween at their front door!

Donate a bag (or bags!) of candy to distribute!

See the marked box in back of church or bring to the office.

Candy must be received by Wed., Oct. 26th!

HEARTS ON FIRE at Sacred Heart Where Faith is Known, Lived, & Shared

"The liturgy is the summit toward which the activity of the Church is directed," and "the font from which all her power flows."

– Sacrosanctum Concilium

LISTEN to VATICAN II: Holy Mother Church has [also] instituted sacramentals. These are sacred signs which bear a resemblance to the sacraments: they signify effects, particularly of a spiritual kind, which are obtained through the Church's intercession. By them men are disposed to receive the chief effect of the sacraments, and various occasions in life are rendered holy.

Sacrosanctum Concilium (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy), 90

PRAY: throughout the week

O My Jesus, reveal to us the sacred signs—sacramentals—that resemble and teach us about the Sacraments. Open our hearts to make us, through them, more "disposed to receive the chief effects of the Sacraments" and to make our lives more holy. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in each of us the fire of your love. Amen!

ASK & ACT: What is this note saying to me? Do I use sacramentals with an open heart to receive their effects—e.g. Rosary, Holy Water, Sign of the Cross, blessing at meals, scapulars? Do I understand that as signs, they can help me to receive the Sacraments more fully, and can make "occasions in my life," like meals and Baptism, more holy? I will pray to God that I will be so disposed to better receive their effects.

Saint OF THE WEEK

OCTOBER 24 | ST. ANTHONY MARY CLARET

Saint Anthony Mary Claret is also known as the "spiritual father of Cuba." He was born in Salient in Catalonia, Spain, in 1807. He became a weaver, like his father, and was very talented. But he studied in his spare time to become a priest and was ordained in 1835. In 1849 the saint founded the Claretians, a religious institute of missionaries, and a companion order of women religious who served as teachers for girls.

From 1850 to 1857 he served as Archbishop of Santiago de Cuba, Cuba, where he worked diligently to reform both clergy and laity. He opposed concubinage and instructed black slaves, and championed family-owned farms instead of the mass farming of a sugar cash crop. These stances were vehemently opposed by many, and Saint Anthony was the target of assassins.

He was recalled to act as Queen Isabella II's confessor, a duty he reluctantly agreed to, with the exceptions that he would reside away from the court, attending the household only to hear confessions and instruct the children. While in Spain he founded the Religious Publishing House and wrote or published 200 Catholic books and pamphlets. He went into exile to France with the Queen's household during the Spanish Revolution of 1868.

The saint returned to Rome to Participate in Vatican I where he defended the infallibility of the Pope. He died in France in 1870 and was canonized in 1950 by Pope Pius XII. ©LPi

The fruitfulness of evangelization depends upon the graces called down through intercession.

Come Father, Son, and Holy Spirit!!

- ~ Let all families at Sacred Heart, during this Year of Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood, pray in thanksgiving for an abundance of calls—grant our sons, grandsons, cousins, and friends the strength and courage to follow in the footsteps of their brothers in the priesthood.
- ~ For our Family of Parishes Clergy and leaders to work in the spirit of cooperation and collaboration to develop a plan that best uses the gifts of each family member parish.
- ~ May all at Sacred Heart and our Family of Parishes look for and be thankful "ahead of time" for the opportunities and blessings found in any changes required in the forming of our Family of Parishes.
- ~ For all members of Sacred Heart to understand the need for Spiritual Warfare, and so to fast and pray, and vote NO for the defeat of the evils of Proposal 3.

We ask all this in the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit (sign of the Cross). Amen.

Special thanks to Deacon Dave's organization and Sacred Heart's Knight of Columbus's donation for the re-painting of the statues of the Virgin Mary off the parking lot, and the Holy Family at the Hall entrance!

Their restored beauty helps lift our hearts in prayer. Thanks You!

CAR NEEDED!

A new, young parishioner and recent immigrant from India, is in dire need of a simple, affordable, reliable used car for transportation to work (and church!). Price range is $6,000.

Please contact the office at 248-852-4170, Ext. 10, if you have something available!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

There is a thing called "false piety." It is when we wear a religious disguise of devotion, attend to our obligations, and outwardly abide by rules while being inwardly unkind, uncharitable, and exclusive. Wearing the right clothes, saying the proper prayers, being in sacred places, and reading devotional books, those exhibiting false piety craftily try to control others using the pretense of love. The Pharisees, consistently criticized by Jesus, are prime examples. Thinking they are superior to others, they foolishly believe they are better positioned with God and more worthy of God's attention. Forming an exclusive "club," they divide things between "mine" and "yours" and "us" and "them." They quickly criticize and point out flaws and errors in rituals and thinking. Conformity becomes the first commandment and control is the game's name.

The requirements for "club membership" are clear: do what we do, think what we think, and believe what we believe. Attempting to control others using the lure of "status" or "salvation," they seduce others into thinking that conformity is the only way to holiness. Clinging to "my beliefs," "my parish," "my way of thinking," they fail to see the more significant relationship with God that is veiled in all of these superficial rules and practices. Shallow, hollow, and empty vessels, they gloss over the more important virtues of justice, mercy, faithfulness, and forgiveness. Sparkling clean on the outside, but dirty on the inside. Spiritual arrogance is a grave sin. It alienates and hurts the little ones, those considered "least" in the kingdom.

God knows no favorites. Everyone belongs regardless of whether you are an official, bona fide member. Sometimes membership may be a detriment to actually living the Gospel if you're joining the team for the wrong reasons. The genuinely humble ones may not appear to be overly "pious." They may not know all of the proper prayers or abide by all of the correct rituals, but they know that they are broken and need mercy. There is no shame in being broken. In fact, many things need to be broken in order to be what they truly are! There is a reason Jesus told us to pray in private. It's only between you and God. It is nobody else's business. ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

MORE THAN A BUZZWORD

If you roll your eyes at the mention of the term stewardship, it's probably because, in the modern Church, stewardship has become something of a corporate buzzword. It's often used interchangeably with the concepts of financial endowment and volunteerism.

What's wrong with supporting your parish monetarily? What's the issue with giving of your time in service and ministry? Nothing at all, in fact — we should all be doing more of these things.

But as we do them, we should be constantly asking ourselves the all-important questions: Why am I doing this? How am I doing this? For whom am I doing this?

A donation to the parish school is a great thing. But ideally, the donor would have made the gift regardless of the ability to name the school gym. A tireless volunteer who always finds time for her parish certainly glorifies God with her commitment. But hopefully, her commitment would be just as enthusiastic if she knew there was no prospect of being written up in the bulletin as Volunteer of the Month.

God knows no favorites. The prayer of the Pharisee in the temple did not justify him because the Pharisee didn't really mean it as a prayer. His intent wasn't to thank God, his intent was to draw attention to his gifts. God did not reject the Pharisee's fasting and his tithes, he rejected the spirit in which they were offered.

God desires to transform us — our hearts, our souls, our communities. When we give of ourselves — either through money or through time — he is honored by the act of giving, not the gift itself. We should never make the mistake of thinking that stewardship is "time, talent, and treasure." Stewardship is the spirit of offering these gifts freely.

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Week of October 23, 2022

With God in Russia

Well known for his heroic story of surviving 24 years in Russian prison camps, this film about the great Jesuit Fr. Walter Ciszek traces his incredible endurance and struggle for survival. It highlights his tremendous faith in God, and the remarkable impact his life has had on the resurgence of Catholicism in Russia, as seen with on location footage from around the world.

The Last Things

This film presents the reality of death and what will follow for every person: first the Particular Judgment before God, and second, Heaven or Hell as our destination for all eternity. The Catholic teaching on Purgatory is also explained.

What Is Heaven?

Does heaven exist? Is heaven the eternal Church? Dr. Michael Barber and Chris Stefanick clear up common misunderstandings about heaven.
