HEARTS ON FIRE at Sacred Heart

Where Faith is Known,
Lived, & Shared

"The liturgy is the summit toward which the activity of the Church is directed," and "the font from which all her power flows."

— Sacrosanctum Concilium

LISTEN to VATICAN II: Thus, for well-disposed members of the faithful, the liturgy of the sacraments and sacramentals sanctifies almost every event in their lives; they are given access to the stream of divine grace which flows from the paschal mystery of the passion, death, and resurrection of Christ, the font from which all sacraments and sacramentals draw their power. There is hardly any proper use of material things which cannot thus be directed toward the sanctification of men and the praise of God.

Sacrosanctum Concilium (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy), 61

PRAY: throughout the week

O My Jesus, prepare us to be "well-disposed" members of Your faithful to receive the "stream of divine grace" which flows from the sacraments and sacramentals we celebrate in the Church. Guide us in directing, by the power which flows from Your passion, death and resurrection, the material things in our lives toward our own sanctification and the praise of God. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in each of us the fire of your love. Amen!

ASK & ACT: What is this note saying to me? What events in my life have I, through the liturgy of the sacraments and sacramentals, "been sanctified"? Baptism? Confirmation? Reconciliation? Marriage? What about making the sign of the Cross before meals or prayer or doing something difficult? Praying a Rosary for a particular intention? I will consider where I might become more "well-disposed" to sanctify other events in my life and pray for an increase in the "stream of divine grace" which flows from these.

Saint OF THE WEEK

NOVEMBER 5 | ST. BERTILLA

On November 5, it is the feast day of St. Bertilla. St. Bertilla was born of one of the most illustrious families in the territory of Soissons (France), in the reign of Dagobert I. As she grew up, she learned perfectly to despise the world, and earnestly desired to renounce it. Not daring to tell this to her parents, she first consulted St. Ouen, by whom she was encouraged in her resolution.

The Saint's parents were then made acquainted with her desire, which God inclined them not to oppose. They conducted her to Jouarre, a great monastery in Brie, four leagues from Meaux, where she was received with immense joy and trained up in the strictest practice of monastic perfection. By her perfect submission to all her sisters she seemed every one's servant and acquitted herself with such great charity and edification that she was chosen prioress to assist the abbess in her administration.

About the year 646 she was appointed first abbess of the abbey of Chelles, which she governed for forty-six years with equal vigor and discretion, until she closed her penitential life in 692.

The fruitfulness of evangelization depends upon the graces called down through intercession.

Come Father, Son, and Holy Spirit!!

- ~ We give thanks to God ahead of time for the abundant harvest that will be born from our efforts of a year focused on praying for more priestly vocations in the Archdiocese of Detroit.
- ~ For all the Souls of the departed from our Family of Parishes—Sacred Heart, St. Hugo, St. Thomas More, and St. Damien of Molokai—may they rest in peace in the arms of our Lord, Jesus Christ.
- ~ May the Eucharistic Revival be an occasion for a powerful reawakening of faith and rekindling of "Eucharistic Amazement."
- ~ For all the efforts of the faithful in fasting and praying to wash over the minds and hearts of people to grasp the evil fruits of Proposal 3 and to VOTE NO to defeat it.

We ask all this in the Name of the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit (sign of the Cross). Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Barry had a life sentence in prison for doing unthinkable crimes. He would often remark to the chaplain that he was an atheist and could not bring himself to believe in any "god." When the chaplain asked why, Barry quickly retorted that the book of Genesis speaks of God creating everything and feeling very good about it. God's creation of people and things is beautiful. Barry continued, "If there is a God who creates something and likes what He makes and that God is good, then how could He have created someone as evil as me?" The chaplain fell silent as tears welled up in his eyes. "God loves you too, Barry. The stuff that you did is another matter. God puts His image and likeness in each one of us, in our souls. How can God not love himself?" God cannot despise or hate anything or anyone. He made you. Life hurt you. He is always about unconditional love and mercy. Barry found a glimmer of hope that day and was touched by love.

Zacchaeus met love incarnate in Jesus. He knew there was something special about him, and he had to see Jesus for himself. Realizing and knowing God's unconditional, penetrating love is a game-changer. Sinners don't repulse Jesus, he wants to eat with them! We can often find ourselves conflicted about how God sees us. We want to believe that He loves us, but other tapes playing in our heads convince us that this cannot be true. We carry our sins around like heavy sacks weighing on our shoulders. We are crippled.

God's divine blessing lives in each of our souls. It is our essential goodness, a free gift given to us by God. The beginnings of salvation's blessings are discovered when we begin to understand who God is, who we are, and how we are to act relative to our brothers and sisters. We become more focused and courageous, eager to gather up all of the fragments of our lives and become whole. Zacchaeus, after meeting Jesus, finally knew who he was. He saw his sins and his potential for goodness as a blest child of God. When we allow God to meet us and touch us in such a profound way, we find what our selfishness has lost. We are on the road to salvation. ©LPi

THANKSGIVING BASKETS PARISH FOOD DRIVE

This weekend our parish community will be handing out red bags for the Thanksgiving Baskets Parish Food Drive. Please take at least one bag and bring it back with food by Sunday, November 20. Our goal is to be able to provide families in our area enough food for Thanksgiving and meals the week after. We also are providing each family with a gift card to purchase a fresh protein and dessert, so there will be tags available to take and return with either a $25 or $50 Meijer gift card. There are shopping lists available by the bags in the back of Church with specific items we are most in need of. Please consider helping us bring the joy of the Thanksgiving Season to these families in need in our backyard!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognizing God in Your Ordinary Moments

DO WE WATCH JESUS FROM A DISTANCE?

It seems to me that Zacchaeus may have gotten more than he bargained for when he scaled that sycamore tree.

We can only speculate as to what the original intentions of the wealthy tax collector were. We know he wanted to see Jesus, of course — but what does that mean? Was he simply curious about this famous and controversial man?

Was he moved by what he heard of Jesus' teachings? Was he trying to catch a glimpse, or to get close?

Whatever his initial motivations, we can safely assume he did not expect Jesus to look up and say: "Get down. I am coming to your house today."

I often find myself taking the same posture as Zacchaeus in the tree. Perhaps I have a problem I'm wrestling with or a personal fault I need to overcome. At times I know I need to give of myself in ways that scare me. Whatever it is, I am watching Jesus from a distance. I am removed. Because I worry that when he gets close, he will get in my space. He will see whatever it is I don't want to deal with or tackle.

I need to remember that Jesus does not come to condemn, but to assist. It is God's desire to make us "worthy of His calling." To do that, He knows we need help. He knows we need Him in our space.

I'll say this for Zacchaeus — he was ready. He jumped right down, acknowledged what he had to be ashamed of, and vowed to do better. He brought Jesus home.

May we all have that same courage.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

ST. IRENAEUS PARISH SPECIAL NEEDS MINISTRY

For the past eight years, St. Irenaeus Parish has provided a very unique ministry for people with special needs. Family members, friends in our community, and group homes in the area are invited to bring friends with special needs to our monthly gatherings. Together we make crafts and use props as we act out skits based on our Bible story of the day. Snacks and prayer are also part of our time together!

Events are held the second Saturday of the month from 1 pm – 2:30 pm in the St. Irenaeus Parish Hall. Please join us with your special needs friend or family member! And if you are interested in helping us plan and lead this ministry, contact Rayanne Gardner at rayanne@rayanne.com.

PRAY, FAST, GIVE ALMS AND VOTE

For the Defeat of Proposal 3!

PROPOSAL 3 WOULD ALLOW ABORTION FOR:

- ANYONE: any age... including minors
- ANY TIME: up to the moment of birth... and beyond birth
- ANY WHERE: in a medical facility... or any other location

Proposal 3 is deadly and deceptive – if passed it would usher in death for generations.

Michigan needs YOU to help others VOTE NO on Proposal 3.

Saint Charles Borromeo: The Good Shepherd
As the Cardinal Bishop of Rome Pius IX, Saint Charles Borromeo was one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in the world. He faced the enormous challenge of reforming the enormous Archdiocese of Milan to the impoverished life of a Renaissance prince, and willingly spent himself in the service of his flock.

The Catholic Take on Halloween
Reframing the dead in pumpkins, celebrating the Saints, and the Catholic perspective on Halloween.

Purgatory by Dr. Scott Hahn
This volume seeks to answer the questions that Protestants make to the Catholic Faith, including the authority of the Pope, the doctrine of Purgatory, devotion to the blessed Virgin Mary and the Saints, the Sacrament of the Eucharist, and the Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist.
