John 6:51

A EUCHARISTIC LIFE: Another meaning of “ONE” is unity with others. When Christ gave himself at the Last Supper, he did so without reservation. His gift emptied him, and it was a promise that he would “go to the end” to be with us—all the way through Calvary and the Resurrection. In the appearance of bread and wine, Jesus concealed the treasure of his entire self, sharing both his humanity and divinity. THAT is living a Eucharistic life—a life in which we are loved, filled through prayer, and truly poured out for others. For the other—ONE.

(National Eucharistic Congress)

WALK THE WAY OF THE EUCHARIST YOURSELF: as YOU walk with your ONE: TAKE, BLESS, BREAK, GIVE.

STEP 1

TAKE in Jesus—in prayer, Adoration, in His Word, and especially in the Eucharist.

STEP 2

Seek God’s BLESSING in communion with the Holy Spirit, for your ONE and YOU.

STEP 3

BREAK open opportunities, and let God BREAK through to YOU and your ONE.

STEP 4

GIVE of yourself to your ONE—your time, a listening ear, an invitation, attention.

“The sacrament of charity, the Holy Eucharist, is the gift that Jesus Christ makes of himself, thus revealing to us God’s infinite love for every man and woman”

Sacramentum Caritatis

Apostolic Exhortation on the “Sacrament of Charity”, the Holy Eucharist, by Pope Benedict XVI

LISTEN to POPE BENEDICT XVI: Ars Celebrandi: There is a need to avoid any antithesis between the ars celebrandi, the art of proper celebration, and the full, active and fruitful participation of all the faithful. The primary way to foster the participation of the People of God in the sacred rite is the proper celebration of the rite itself. The ars celebrandi is the best way to ensure their actual participation. It is the fruit of faithful adherence to the liturgical norms in all their richness, indeed, for two thousand years this way of celebrating has sustained the faith life of all believers, called to take part in the celebration as the People of God, a royal priesthood, a holy nation.

Sacramentum Caritatis 38

PRAY: Throughout the week... LORD pour out your heavenly Grace to show us the proper way of celebration in the Mass so that we, the faithful, will bear the “full, active, and fruitful participation” of the rite. “Sustain our faith life “as we celebrate properly as the People of God, your holy nation. Amen!

ASK & ACT: What are these words saying to me? Have I considered what is the “art of proper celebration” of the rite at Mass? And how would doing so lead me to a more “full, active, and fruitful participation?” Do I just go “through the motions,” without giving much thought to what I am doing or saying, and why? Why is it important that we celebrate “properly?” Have I considered that this proper celebration has sustained the faithful for two thousand years? I will pray that the Holy Spirit will open my mind and heart to see that how I celebrate the rites of the Mass determine my level of participation in it, and the fruitfulness it bears in my life of faith. LORD I believe! Forgive my unbelief!

The Problem of Evil

by John Hannigan

The murder of school children and the wounding of many others at Mass last week makes no sense. This cowardly crime against innocents and sacrilege against the Church cries out for explanation, apparently in vain. Families mourn while politicians and “experts” blame weak laws, poor mental health care, and corrupt society. There are many causal, mitigating and exacerbating factors, and millions own guns, are mentally ill, and endure troubled childhoods without killing people. The unavoidable, painful and mysterious question is “why did the perpetrator choose to commit this evil?” For understanding, we look to the wisdom of centuries distilled in The Catechism of the Catholic Church.

“Why does evil exist? ... no quick answer will suffice. Only Christian faith as a whole constitutes the answer: ... the patient love of God ... redemptive Incarnation of his Son ... the Church ... sacraments, and the call to a blessed life to which free creatures are invited ... but from which, by a terrible mystery, they can turn away ... There is not a single aspect of the Christian message that is not in part an answer to the question of evil” (¶1309). “We must approach the question of evil by fixing the eyes of faith on him who alone is its conqueror” (¶1385).

Without divine Revelation “we cannot recognize sin clearly and are tempted to explain it as merely a developmental flaw, a psychological weakness, a mistake, or the consequence of inadequate social structure, etc. Only in the knowledge of God’s plan can we grasp that sin is an abuse of the freedom that God gives to created persons so that they are capable of loving him and one another” (¶1387).

Some despair of “thoughts and prayers,” but it is to God and his Church we turn for consolation. Unleash the Gospel reminds us it is spiritual opposition we face: ‘Our struggle is not with flesh and blood but with principalities and powers, the world rulers of this present darkness, with the evil spirits’ (Eph 6:12). We need not be afraid, since we know who has already won the victory.” We resist the evil one, “exercising the authority we have in Christ” using the weapons of prayer ... and the Sacraments. ‘Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you’ (James 4:7-8).”

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA)

Do you know someone searching for deeper meaning in life, someone who keeps asking the "BIG QUESTIONS"?

Why am I here?

Why is there something rather than nothing?

Who is God, and what does He want with me?

Or maybe you are the one asking these questions and seeking more. Are you considering becoming Catholic, or just curious to learn what the Catholic Church believes?

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA), formerly called RCIA, is a journey of discovery. It is designed for people who are searching for faith, truth, and purpose, and for those who want to explore a relationship with Jesus Christ.

OCIA is not just a class or program, but a process of conversion, prayer, and discernment. It helps seekers encounter God in His Word, in the sacraments, and in the life of the Church.

While there is no set timetable, preparation often takes about nine months, there is no rigid timetable. For many, the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist are celebrated at the Easter Vigil—the most joyful liturgy of the Church year.

If you are already Catholic, chances are you know someone who has never received this invitation. Please consider sharing it with them. You may be the bridge God uses to help a loved one, friend, or neighbor discover the peace, joy, and truth they have been seeking. Extending a kind invitation to OCIA is a powerful way of witnessing to your faith and sharing the Gospel.

Who is OCIA for?

People who have never been baptized in any Christian faith.

Baptized Catholics who never completed their sacraments.

Baptized Christians of another faith tradition who wish to become Catholic.

Anyone seeking to enter fully into the Catholic Church.

This year, OCIA will be run jointly at St. Thomas More and Sacred Heart parishes. For details, see the parish bulletins or contact Deacon Michael at Sacred Heart: 248-852-4170 or by email at dcnmichael123@gmail.com
