NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.
John 6:51

A EUCHARISTIC LIFE: This Year of Mission invites us to live out this ONeness (both with God and with each other) with renewed vigor. Some of us may have had powerful encounters over the past two years—whether through our diocese, our parish, or the National Eucharistic Congress—but this year we're being called to go "further up and farther in" to the mystery of God's Eucharistic life. How will we (!!!) do that?

(National Eucharistic Congress)

WALK THE WAY OF THE EUCHARIST YOURSELF: as YOU walk with your ONE:

- STEP 1 TAKE in Jesus—in prayer, Adoration, in His Word, and especially in the Eucharist.
- STEP 2 Seek God's BLESSing in communion with the Holy Spirit, for your ONE and YOU.
- STEP 3 BREAK open opportunities, and let God BREAK through to YOU and your ONE.
- STEP 4 GIVE of yourself to your ONE—your time, a listening ear, an invitation, attention.

Get started at www.eucharisticrevival.org/walk-with-one

"The sacrament of charity, the Holy Eucharist, is the gift that Jesus Christ makes of himself, thus revealing to us God's infinite love for every man and woman"

Sacramentum Caritatis

Apostolic Exhortation on the "Sacrament of Charity", the Holy Eucharist, by Pope Benedict XVI

LISTEN to POPE BENEDICT XVI: The Bishop: He is the moderator, promoter, and guardian of the whole of its liturgical life. This is essential for the life of the particular Church, not only because communion with the Bishop is required for the lawfulness of every celebration within his territory, but also because he himself is the celebrant par excellence within his Diocese. It is his responsibility to ensure unity and harmony in the celebrations taking place in his territory.

Sacramentum Caritatis 39

PRAY: Throughout the week... LORD, give to our ordained Bishops an appreciation of their importance as "moderator, promoter, and guardian of the whole liturgical life" in his particular Church. Give him your Grace to be your "celebrant par excellence" within his Diocese. Use him to bring unity and harmony in the celebrations in his territory. Amen!

ASK & ACT: What are these words saying to me? How often have I considered the importance and the responsibility of our Diocesan Bishop (Archbishop Weisenburger)? Do I recognize him as "the moderator, promoter, and guardian of the whole liturgical life" in Detroit? What a tremendous responsibility! I must look for ways to work with him to "ensure unity and harmony" in our celebrations. He needs my prayers and the prayers of all of us. LORD, give him wisdom and strength. Hear our prayer.

The Dishonest Steward

by John Hannigan

This week's Gospel is hard to understand. What is Jesus teaching in his parable of the steward called to account for "squandering" his master's property (Luke 16:1-13)? A key to many of Christ's parables is unexpected twists that can jolt listeners toward a deeper understanding.

The steward is busted, caught stealing from his master. He can't face life as a laborer or beggar but doesn't deny his theft, plead for forgiveness, or offer to repay. Rather, he steals even more by reducing what the rich man's debtors own in oil and wheat. He aims to ingratiate himself to others so he might find a position later with new friends. We expect the master to be even angrier, but here is the twist. Instead of punishing, he "commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently." Why attribute the virtue of prudence to a thief? Why does Jesus say, "the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light."

It is not dishonesty being praised. What Jesus finds praiseworthy is the steward's planning ahead for his future. Jesus is comparing behavior in the present fallen world of darkness, with what more is expected of his disciples, the "children of light." Jesus expects us, his disciples, to be prudent and just, to look to our ultimate future and prepare now for the accounting to which we will be called.

We are stewards of everything we have. Our material goods, time, talents, and bodies are gifts from God. Are we being prudent in how we manage our gifts, all the mere earthly treasures entrusted to us? In another startling twist, Jesus says: "make friends for yourselves with dishonest wealth, so that when it fails, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings." With hyperbole, Jesus aims his disciples toward the end times, where children of light, his disciples, shall be with his Father in heaven.

Jesus is reminding us that friends made "with dishonest wealth" will fail. We should aim to be "trustworthy in very small matters" in this world so we may be worthy of the next. In Luke 12:33, Jesus says, "Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy. For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Before I was a priest, I was a lazy worker for a retail Apple store. Hearing a rumor that my boss was going to fire me, I secretly sold iPhones for half-price, gave away dozens of free iPads, and donated several brand-new laptops to managers in other stores in the mall. After a week, my boss called me into his office. He knew what I was up to. He said I had cost the store thousands of dollars. "Really great work, John," he said. "I am going to recommend you to be my assistant manager and double your pay." I was amazed. And so are you. Which is understandable because it never happened. How could it? My tall tale is a retelling of Jesus' brow-furrowing parable we hear this week. A lazy, dishonest steward defrauds his boss and then the "master commended the dishonest servant for acting prudently" (Luke 16:8). What is the Lord saying to us?

Most of us treat our spiritual lives like a lazy teenager at an Apple store. We really don't care. We go through the motions. Then, if we are lucky, something happens that shakes us to spiritual action; to employ whatever time, money, and resources we have to build around us a strong network of love. Every saint did that. Our Lord is so good he wants us to use his stuff to forgive debts and to bless others. He wants us to ensure our future. So do it!

— Father John Muir ©LPI

Many thanks to the team who worked to make the picnic successful again this year.

The Knights of Columbus with Mike Kurkowski at the helm made sharing lunch with family and friends joyful. The outstanding contribution of 12 home made cakes for the cake walk was provided by Linda Botson!

Our own magician Tyler Fleming returned again this year to amaze and entertain with assistance provided by ladies Zahra and Chrissy along with Tyler's preschool associate Ciaran. Face painting, tatoos, artistry, games and prizes were provided for the littles to engage in by our magician's assistants and by Kelly Fleming and Genevieve Cho. Deacon Dave provided music and previous experience to help make this weather perfect day a blessing.

The family of Sacred Heart continues to grow stronger each time we come together.

Thank you to all who shared this wonderful day.

Cornhole Tournament winners are Christopher and Theresa Pacholski!

Padre Pio: Miracle Man

This movie captures the Capuchin friar's intense faith, devotion, and deep spiritual concern for others, as well as his great compassion for the sick and suffering. It reveals the amazing details and events in Padre Pio's life as a boy and throughout his fifty years as a friar, dramatizing the frequent attacks from the devil, as well as the persecution he suffered at the hands of people, including those in the Church.

Saint Matthew | Catholic Saints

Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. We are all familiar with the four Gospels, but what makes them stand out from the rest? Join Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Michael Barber as they discuss St. Matthew, the great Apostle and evangelist.

Padre Pio: Between Heaven and Earth

Based on the historical records and the personal testimony of his fellow friars, this is the amazing true story of the life of the famous stigmatic monk, St. Padre Pio, a contemporary saint who died in 1968. Blessed with incredible spiritual gifts, including healing, bi-location, reading of souls, and the stigmatic wounds, Padre Pio was a powerful witness for Christ, and a great spiritual guide to countless souls for over fifty years.
